3 Canton Men And Wives Face Beaver Grand Jury Action

Three Canton men and two women identified as their wives have admitted armed robberies Monday night at two service stations in Beaver County and Columbiana County, Pennsylvania State Police at Beaver Falls said today.

They were traveling in two vehicles when apprehended at roadblocks near Clinton and Imperial Monday night, after holdups at the Highway Oil Co. station near the Pennsylvania - West Virginia border, and the Valley Service Station at Cannons Mills.

The men are Robert L. Jordan, 30, Alfred L. Bonner, 29, and George Robinson, 39, who were being held in custody today in Beaver County Jail while authorities consider setting of bonds for each.

The trio pleaded guilty at a hearing Monday night at 10:30 before Squire Joseph F. Gerace of Rochester Township to charges of armed robbery and violation of the Uniform Firearms Act, Pennsylvania State Police said.

Robinson's wife, Gladys, 44, and Delores C. Bryant, 26, whom State Police said is Jordon's common law wife, pleaded guilty to charges of being accessories after the fact. They are being held in Beaver County Jail in lieu of $1,000 property bonds.

The Columbiana County sheriff's office said it plans to file detainers against the five defendants, who now face prosecution in Beaver County Court in Beaver.

The charges concern holdups at 6:15 Monday night at Cannons Mills in which Henry C. Smith said $30 was taken at gunpoint, and 35 minutes later at the sta-

U.S. Military Action May Be Needed In Dictatorship

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

The lid may blow off this spring in the confused Caribbean Negro Republic of Haiti.

If an explosion comes, say reliable sources, U.S. military action may be needed to prevent a Castro-like regime from popping up on the Island of Hispaniola, only 50 miles across the strategic Windward Passage from Cuba.

Haiti, a turbulent dictatorship, shares Hispaniola with the Dominican Republic, itself freed recently from the Trujillo dictatorship.

Sources in touch with Port au Prince, the Haitian capital, speculate that President Francois Duvalier, dictator of the French-speaking nation of 4 million, will leave the country suddenly, before May, with the explanation he is seeking medical treatment abroad. The 55-year-old dictator has been ailing.

Informants add that if Dr. Duvalier decides to leave, he probably will turn the government over to his current interior minister, Luc F. Francois.

Duvlier is a physician turned politician, known to Haitians as "Papa Doc." He has survived a dozen plots since taking office in 1957 after an election denounced by his foes as fraudulent.

Now he may scent disaster. A general student strike against the regime is in the offing. Duvalier's secret police and militia are reported cracking down with a wave of arrests.

Reliable informants said two students were shot dead in Port au Prince's streets Friday and that the capital is being flooded with anti-Duvalier handbills. The situation is described as extremely tense. Haitians in exile all around the hemisphere are reported on the alert for an upheaval.

In 1961, during a legislative election, Duvalier faked a plebiscite and had himself declared re-elected for another full six-year term, two years before his first term was to run out. That first term expires in May.

Duvalier's foes say he is distrustful of his army, fearful of assassination and suspicious of an international move against him in the Organization of American States. His foe say the moment his 1957 mandate expires he will be in the presidency illegally and that Venezuela and the Dominican Republic are prepared to withdraw diplomatic recognition. Other nations would be expected to follow, isolating Duvalier.

Almost certainly there would be violence. Moderates among Duvalier's foes are not united. The extreme leftist element, however small, is organized, informants report. Communists are among the student groups attempting to touch off violence and seize the leadership.

Duvalier's sudden departure could leave the poverty-stricken nation, 90 per cent of whose people cannot read or write, on the edge of civil war.

The army, distrusted by Duvalier, is poor in weapons. The arms are in the hands of Duvalier's militia, a semi-military organization the president uses to suppress internal opposition.

A struggle for power involving the army and the militia would leave the country vulnerable to operations from outside.

Castroite elements inside Haiti likely would join forces quickly with infiltrators in a strike for power. Communists already in powerful positions would help them, the informants report.

Khrushchev Pledges To Pull Some

Promise Hailed By U.S. Legislators As Significant Move

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leading congressional Democrats joined several Republicans today in calling for the withdrawal of all—and not just part—of the 17,000 Soviet troops in Cuba.

A written communication to President Kennedy that Soviet Premier Krushchev plans to ship several thousand Russian soldiers home soon was hailed as a significant development.

But members of both parties said the Kennedy administration must continue to press with all of the force at its command for complete evacuation of Soviet military men from the island.

Some informants said the Soviet Union had given assurance that several thousand troops would be out of Cuba by March 15.

There was no official comment from the White House or the State Department.

John A. McCone, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, was reported to have told the House Foreign Affairs Committee Tuesday that several empty Soviet merchant ships were on their way to Cuba.

While urging the administration to press for the withdrawal of all Soviet forces from Cuba, no members of Congress came forward with any concrete proposals as to how this could be accomplished short of force—a policy Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said he is convinced the Democratic administration shares.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said that while the Soviet pledge to withdraw some troops is encouraging "we cannot be complacent about it until all the Russian troops and technicians manning any weapons are removed."

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., head of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, said the Soviet move was only a first step.

"Our policy must be to insist that they all be withdrawn," he said. "This is the only thing that will really remove the menace."

Council Hears State Aide

Wellsville Given Review Of Roads

Recommendations as to ways of definitely establishing the status of highway projects in Wellsville were presented City Council Tuesday night by Earl W. Nelson, Division 11 deputy highway director.

Nelson spoke briefly on the proposed resurfacing of Clark Ave. and the relocation of Route 7 through the city. He arrived in Wellsville yesterday afternoon at the invitation of Council and met prior to the session with Safety-Service Director Fred Baldasrre.

COUNCILMAN William Stroble, street and light chairman, questioned Nelson first on the plans for Clark Ave.

Nelson suggested Council adopt a resolution asking the state to repave the brick street. Clark Ave. is Route 7 where it enters the lower end of the city.

Then, if money is available, the work will be done, Nelson said. He added the cost would be approximately $20,000, with the city paying about $4,000. The bricks first will have to be sealed, he commented.

A test was made last fall of a mixture prepared to seal the bricks, which are loose.

Nelson was told Council had asked for the repaving of the street in a resolution adopted in June 1961. He said he will check his files and determine if the resolution still is valid.

STROBLE also asked about the relocation of Route 7. Nelson said the present contract with a consulting engineer on the project has been canceled. He again suggested Council adopt a resolution urging the state to hire a consultant to make a report on the project.

The city would not be obligated and, after the report was made, the exact location of the new road and what the city's share would be could then be determined.

It is very difficult to say where the road will be until the report is made, Nelson said, pointing out however, that the preliminary survey made several years ago shows it following along Buckeye Ave.

A more detailed report is needed before it can be determined definitely, he said. Nelson was asked by two persons in the audience as to whether or not it would

Number Slip Case Awaits State Action

LISBON — The next legal action involving the Lisbon Salesbook Co. and charges against it for printing numbers slips will apparently be up to the Ohio attorney general's office.

A ruling by Judge Joel H. Sharp, dismissing indictments against officers of the firm on grounds the law concerned was unconstitutional, has been reversed by the 7th District Court of Appeals, and the case remanded to Columbiana County Common Pleas Court.

Prosecutor G. William Brokaw Tuesday afternoon said he plans to advise the attorney general's office of the appellate court's ruling.

He said it will be up to the state attorney to decide on the next step as to further prosecution.

Judge Sharp dismissed the indictments in December 1961, declaring the stiffer law on gambling, which went into effect in September 1961 regarding printing of betting slips, failed to take into consideration the intent or knowledge of the use of the printed forms.

The indictments were filed against the firm's top officers, all of Pittsburgh: Martin Sufrin, president; Isadore Sufrin, vice president; Joseph Sufrin, secretary - treasurer, and Michael Scheidelmeire, general manager.

They were cited in a sudden raid against the company Sept. 6, 1961, by the then Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy and his assistant, John Gleason.

William B. Saxbe assumed the post of attorney general from McElroy Jan. 14.

13 Indicted As Aftermath Of Club Raid

1 True Bill Names 8 On Similar Count And 5 In Another

BULLETIN

The Federal Grand Jury at Wheeling shortly before noon today indicted 13 persons as the aftermath of Saturday's raid on the Jockey Club at Chester. Eight defendants were named in one indictment on eight counts, and the others were named in a second indictment of one count. The two true bills principally charge violation of a U. S. law by interstate travel to conduct a gambling operation. One accuses aid in racketeering.

Arrest of the 13th person in the wake of the raid on the Jockey Club at Chester was announced by the FBI, which picked up Paul Arthur Bello, 50, at Steubenville shortly before noon on a charge of "violating a federal statute which prohibits interstate travel in aid of racketeering."

E. D. Mason, special agent from the Cincinnati FBI office, announced agents had arrested Bello based on a bench warrant issued by U.S. District Judge Charles Paul after an indictment was returned today by the Federal Grand Jury at Wheeling.

Bello, resident of 328 Lawson Ave., Steubenville, was taken immediately to Wheeling under $5,000 bond for arraignment.

The Federal Grand Jury, surprisingly long in its investigation, reconvened this morning in Wheeling to hear further testimony into activities of the Jockey Club near Chester, where 11 men were nabbed by the FBI in a gambling raid early Saturday morning.

About 20 had testified Monday as the probe opened, including four West Virginia State Police officers from Weirton, who made a follow-up raid six hours after the FBI agents had smashed their way into the upstairs of Club Paddock where the Jockey Club is located.

An estimated 75 persons lined the walls playing slot machines and crowded craps and roulette tables when the FBI agents from Pittsburgh axed down a door to gain entrance and pull off the first raid on the Jockey Club. It culminated months of investigation.

The 11 defendants were arrested on charges of violating a U.S. statute in traveling interstate to conduct a gambling operation in Hancock County.

The Grand Jury was in session all day Monday and again Tuesday, reconvening this morning. U. S. District Atty. Robert E. Maxwell is in charge.

Officers Named To Push Citizens Scholarship Plan

Plans for a districtwide scholarship fund program were launched at an organization meeting of the East Liverpool Area Citizens Scholarship Foundation Tuesday night at which Joseph Coons of Park Way Ext. was elected president.

Coons headed a Jaycee committee which promoted organization of the foundation to grant students with a need for funds to further their education.

Plans were discussed on methods of selection of the scholarship recipients, types of students eligible and for a fund-raising drive this spring .

Coons is president and general manager of WOHI.

Other officers chosen included Glenn Waight of Fisher Ave., news editor of The Review, first vice president and fund drive supervisor; James Locke of Wyoming Ave., city jeweler, second vice president and program chairman; Mrs. Angie Frank, 1610 Globe St., corresponding secretary, and H. James Allison of 3rd St., Chester, treasurer.

The officers were selected by a nominating committee headed by Samuel Brown, city postmaster, and which included John Duffy of Calcutta, Walter Jordan of Chester, Jack Hales of Blackmore

Civil Service For Chester To Be Studied

Council Authorizes Plan Be Examined For City Employes

Further study of a proposal to have Chester city employes placed on Civil Service was authorized by Council Tuesday night.

Clerk Roy Cashdollar was instructed to obtain information on such a program from the West Virginia Civil Service Commission at Charleston.

Require Amendment

Councilman Donald Chaney introduced the proposal to study the Civil Service plan which, according to last night's discussion, would require an amendment to the city charter. Chaney suggested the proposal be placed on the ballot at an election.

Cashdollar said he believes a city must have a specific minimum number of employes in order to have Civil Service under present state regulations. Chaney said he will confer with City Solicitor Ruth Cox Turner concerning such requirements.

Councilman Charles Kology commented officials of the city have been interested in Civil Service for some time, but have never investigated it fully.

Hutton Favors Plan

In another comment, Councilman Wayne Hutton said he would like to see all employes under such a plan, if possible.

Basically, a Civil Service plan would provide for appointment of city employes after an examination, and they could be discharged only for failure to properly perform their jobs or improper conduct, not just for political reasons.

A brief discussion was held on city finances, and Cashdollar said if Council is moderate in spending in the next few months, "the city will wind up better financially at the end of the fiscal year (June 30) than it has in the past four or five years."

Acting Police Chief Clarence Lennens advised Council the use of a new "narrow band" radio system for police departments will be in effect Sept. 1, and city police radio equipment will have to be replaced.

$3,000 Cost Estimated

Chief Lennens said the purchase of new equipment would cost about $3,000 to $4,000 for a base station, remote control equipment at the City Hall caretaker's apartment and for a mobile unit in the cruiser.

The chief said however the new

April 6 Date Of Parochial Spelling Bee

The annual countywide parochial spelling bee has been set for Saturday, April 6, at 2 p.m. in St. Aloysius School here.

Participating in addition to St. Aloysius will be parochial students from schools in Wellsville, Salem, East Palestine and Leetonia.

Each school will hold its own spelldown previous to the April 6 contest, with the three finalists in each case advancing to the finals here. The last two remaining from the 15 spellers who compete here then will move on to the countywide finals for both the parochial and public school systems April 22 at Lisbon.

The various county bees are co-sponsored by The Review and The Salem News.

Statements Slated On Real Estate Taxes

LISBON — County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge said today he plans to have real estate tax statements in the mail by Feb. 28, with the closing date of collection set for April 10.

Tax duplicates are late for this collection due to the reappraisal, which will go into effect for the first-half collection of 1962 payable in 1963, Judge said.

For Big Hotels, Restaurants

Bill Proposes Legalizing Ohio Sunday Liquor Sales

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The first serious attempt to legalize Sunday liquor sales in a quarter-century was before the Ohio Legislature today.

The sponsor is former Senate Minority Leader Joseph W. Bartunek, D-Cuyahoga. The bill reportedly has the backing of Ohio's big hotels and restaurants, particularly in Cleveland.

Ever since the repeal of prohibition in 1933, Ohio has continued to ban Sunday liquor sales.

Bartunek's bill would permit, for a $1,000 annual fee, the sale of liquor between 1 p.m. and 10 p.m. on Sundays in hotels and restaurants with a liquor-service seating capacity of 150 and up if the establishment's business is 50 per cent or more in liquor.

The Sunday sales measure was introduced during a legislative day which saw the first major Rhodes administration bill bounce briskly through the House with the aid of 10 Democratic votes. The vote was 95-32 with only Democrats in opposition.

The measure makes the term appointments of nine directors of key state departments coincide with the governor's four - year term.

If approved by the Senate, the measure would eliminate the six-year holdover appointees who often have proved embarrassing to governors of opposite political faiths.

The affected cabinet posts are those of tax commissioner, superintendent of banks, directors of health, mental hygiene and correction, personnel, natural resources and public works and administrators of workmen's compensation and unemployment compensation.

Sen. Roy Gardner, R-Richland, introduced a bill requiring physically able poor relief recipients to work to qualify for their assistance, a policy which now is optional at the county level.

George D. Aiken, R-Vt., said he is convinced the Democratic administration shares.

Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said that while the Soviet pledge to withdraw some troops is encouraging "we cannot be complacent about it until all the Russian troops and technicians manning any weapons are removed."

Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., head of the Senate Preparedness subcommittee, said the Soviet move was only a first step.

"Our policy must be to insist that they all be withdrawn," he said. "This is the only thing that will really remove the menace."

Civil Service For Chester To Be Studied

Council Authorizes Plan Be Examined For City Employes

Further study of a proposal to have Chester city employes placed on Civil Service was authorized by Council Tuesday night.

Clerk Roy Cashdollar was instructed to obtain information on such a program from the West Virginia Civil Service Commission at Charleston.

Require Amendment

Councilman Donald Chaney introduced the proposal to study the Civil Service plan which, according to last night's discussion, would require an amendment to the city charter. Chaney suggested the proposal be placed on the ballot at an election.

Cashdollar said he believes a city must have a specific minimum number of employes in order to have Civil Service under present state regulations. Chaney said he will confer with City Solicitor Ruth Cox Turner concerning such requirements.

Councilman Charles Kology commented officials of the city have been interested in Civil Service for some time, but have never investigated it fully.

Hutton Favors Plan

In another comment, Councilman Wayne Hutton said he would like to see all employes under such a plan, if possible.

Basically, a Civil Service plan would provide for appointment of city employes after an examination, and they could be discharged only for failure to properly perform their jobs or improper conduct, not just for political reasons.

A brief discussion was held on city finances, and Cashdollar said if Council is moderate in spending in the next few months, "the city will wind up better financially at the end of the fiscal year (June 30) than it has in the past four or five years."

Acting Police Chief Clarence Lennens advised Council the use of a new "narrow band" radio system for police departments will be in effect Sept. 1, and city police radio equipment will have to be replaced.

$3,000 Cost Estimated

Chief Lennens said the purchase of new equipment would cost about $3,000 to $4,000 for a base station, remote control equipment at the City Hall caretaker's apartment and for a mobile unit in the cruiser.

The chief said however the new

April 6 Date Of Parochial Spelling Bee

The annual countywide parochial spelling bee has been set for Saturday, April 6, at 2 p.m. in St. Aloysius School here.

Participating in addition to St. Aloysius will be parochial students from schools in Wellsville, Salem, East Palestine and Leetonia.

Each school will hold its own spelldown previous to the April 6 contest, with the three finalists in each case advancing to the finals here. The last two remaining from the 15 spellers who compete here then will move on to the countywide finals for both the parochial and public school systems April 22 at Lisbon.

The various county bees are co-sponsored by The Review and The Salem News.

Statements Slated On Real Estate Taxes

LISBON — County Treasurer Vincent C. Judge said today he plans to have real estate tax statements in the mail by Feb. 28, with the closing date of collection set for April 10.

Tax duplicates are late for this collection due to the reappraisal, which will go into effect for the first-half collection of 1962 payable in 1963, Judge said.

be wise to go ahead with plans for construction and improvements of their homes.

NELSON advised them to proceed, pointing out the project may not be set for five years or more. The original date was 1965, he said.

Even if every thing went ahead on schedule now, it would be at least three and a half years, he commented.

Nelson said Division 11 is anxious to have the Route 7 project complete from East Liverpool to Monroe County. Wellsville has a "Priority 3" listing for construction in 1965, if things get moving in the right way, he added.

Stroble also questioned Nelson on the possibility of the state repaving a section of Wells Ave. from 3rd St. to beyond the floodwall, pointing out the blacktop is continually being torn up by heavy trucks and traffic.

Nelson said another resolution would be needed asking for repairs.

IN OTHER business, Council gave first reading to legislation establishing Daylight Saving Time from 2 a. m. April 28 to 2 a. m. Oct. 27.

Councilman Robert Taggart, water chairman, reported on the low pressure on Buckeye Ave. He said his committee was informed money in the water depreciation fund cannot be used for replacing the mains in the area. Stroble suggested the money be taken from the parking meter fund.

Councilman Allen Baldwin suggested a meeting of the entire Council, the mayor, safety-director, auditor, treasurer and solicitor to discuss the problem. He said "we should check into the problem before we tap the parking meter fund again."

The meeting was set for Thursday at 7 p. m. in the auditor's office.

Baldasare said the problem of financing may resolve itself in the next two or three months, when the regular water fund is replenished.

BALDWIN said he will meet with Mayor William Daugherty and Baldasare before the next meeting to establish fees for dumping rubbish at the city dump.

Stroble complained of a pile of snow that was not removed from Main St. near 4th St. He said it was blocking two parking places, was unsightly and creating a traffic hazard. He also complained of holes in the blacktop on Wells Ave.

Stroble reported on a meeting with Ohio Power Co. officials, who now are making a survey of the city's lighting system. There will be a surplus of $2,500 in the light fund and a state examiner has recommended the money be put to use.

He said he would like to see mercury vapor lights installed along Main St. but this would require the entire surplus.

He said Ohio Power will have a report for Council within 30 days.

Allen Dalrymple explained plans for the formation of a regional planning commission in Columbiana County.

HE SAID the recommendations of committees working on the planning problem were presented to the Columbiana County commissioners Monday. Dalrymple informed Council of the planning leading up to the formation of the new group.

He said if a regional commission is formed, it will welcome representatives from municipal commissions.

Solicitor William Bush explained the general fund is overdrawn. He said this is partially because the tax collections in the county are tardy. He said the city will not receive any funds from the next collections until April 15.

He said the only sources will be from the state sales tax and other small revenues.

Legislation was ordered authorizing the city to borrow money against anticipated tax revenues. Bush explained the limit is half of the amount anticipated. The city expects about $30,000, so the most it can borrow will be $15,000.

He said the auditor will have difficulty meeting the payroll.

Councilmen Donald Miller and Frank DeLonzo were absent. Mrs. Kay Drago was welcomed. She had been absent because of illness.

Scholarship Group Elects

St. and Mrs. Stanley Wolski of West Point.

A recording secretary is to be chosen later.

Discussion was held on a proposed point system by which students will be selected for scholarships.

A 10-point system is utilized by the National Scholarship Foundation with which the area group plans to affiliate. Under this system, five points are allotted on need by a student for funds, three points for scholarship accomplishments and two points for general character, participation in activities, citizenship and other factors.

At last night's session, attended by about 27 at the Westgate School library, discussion was held on whether more points should be allowed for scholarship.

Waight was appointed chairman of a committee to further study the point system of selecting students and to report at the next meeting March 5. Waight named Lee Kirkland, Miss Betsy Bell and John Parsons to the committee, which he said will be supplemented later by others.

Also aired was whether scholarships would be authorized by the foundation to other than college students, to vocational or nursing students, for example.

Although some indicated they believe the foundation program should be designed exclusively for students seeking college degrees, it was pointed out that a number of people in the community had shown interest in aiding vocational trainees.

Coons appointed a committee to study what types of students will be eligible for funds. On the committee are Bill Kozel, Miss Bell, Mrs. Frank and Jack Conley.

Appointed to contact Parent - Teacher Association groups concerning the foundation program were Parsons for the City PTA Federation, Mrs. Wolski for the Beaver Local PTA's and Richard Jones for the Wellsville PTA's and other groups.

Some $6,000 has already been pledged to the foundation by a number of organizations and firms with scholarship funds they wish to have administered.

Tentative plans for a fund drive call for $1 contributions from each person in the area and $100 or more contributions from clubs and organizations which may make the donations in their own names.

The foundation plans to make scholarship awards to high school students being graduated in June and possibly to some present college students.

Tentative plans call for initial selection of students from applications which would be anonymous. The selections committee would, after choosing those qualified, then narrow the applicants to those slated to actually receive the funds on the basis of the proposed point system.

Delegate To Cancer Session Addresses Medical Groups

Dr. William Flynn, Youngstown surgeon and delegate to the eighth International Cancer Congress in Russia last summer, showed slides and spoke on his trip when the Columbiana County Medical Society and auxiliary held a dinner meeting at the Wick Hotel in Lisbon Tuesday night.

Dr. Flynn also presented information pertaining to the American Cancer Society.

About 70 persons attended. Guests were Mrs. Audrey Newtz of East Liverpool, president of the Columbiana County Chapter of the Cancer Society, and Mrs. Jane Calhoun of Lisbon, director of the county unit.

Dr. William A. Kolozsi of Salem, county coroner, will present the program at the next meeting of the society March 19 at 6:30 p. m. at the Wick Hotel.

Dr. V. C. Hart of Salem, society president, presided.

Mrs. J. Fraser Jackson, auxiliary president, conducted business and named the following nominating committee, Mrs. P. W. Conrad of Leetonia, chairman; Mrs. A. M. Simpson of East Palestine and Mrs. F. R. Crowgey of Salem.

Mrs. William Banfield gave the annual report on the American Medical Education Research Foundation.

Officers will be elected at the next meeting March 19 with Mrs. J. M. Nedelkoff of Salineville. Mrs. George Kemeny, Mrs. G. A. Pellar and Mrs. Jackson are associate hostesses.

Autoist To Spend Weekends In Jail

LISBON — Jerry Molner, 50, of Columbiana R.D. 2 advised Common Pleas Court Tuesday that he would not appeal the sentence on drunken driving imposed last week by Judge Joel H. Sharp and will become a "weekend" prisoner.

Judge Sharp had sentenced him to six months in the County Jail and fined him $500. Judge Sharp suspended $400 of the fine and all but 30 days of the jail sentence on condition he is not picked up again for driving while intoxicated.

Molner then asked court permission to serve his jail sentence on weekends so that he would not lose his job in Youngstown and the judge agreed. He will serve from Saturday morning to Monday afternoon, until his 30-day sentence is completed.

Molner was indicted by the January Grand Jury, pleaded not guilty but was convicted on Feb. 5 by a jury. He failed to appeal within the three - day period and was sentenced. His attorney said they would appeal but Molner then decided to serve the sentence.

Area Man Speaks To Rogers Club

Bud Hillyard of the Hillyard Farms near Lawrenceville, Chester, was guest speaker at a meeting of the Rogers Ruritan Club Monday night in the Clarkson community building.

He discussed his farming operations and screened slides. Hillyard told of the use of plastic strips in growing vegetables.

He was introduced by Richard Barnhouse, lieutenant governor of Zone 2. Ralph Snyder, district governor, reported on the national convention held at Atlantic City.

Barnhouse was master of ceremonies. The meal was served by the Clarkson Presbyterian Women's Association.

Plans for a minstrel were discussed.

City Motorist Fined $200 And Sentenced

A city motorist was fined a total of $200 and costs and sentenced to three days in jail on three charges at a hearing Tuesday before Mayor William Daugherty of Wellsville.

Wayne Porter, 829 Cadmus St., was fined $150 and costs and sentenced to three days for leaving the scene of an accident, and $25 each on charges of reckless operation and intoxication.

He was cited Monday night after an accident about 10 on 3rd St. near Lisbon St., Wellsville, when police said his car struck another. He continued on and wrecked his car later on the super-road. He was arrested in a nearby restaurant, police said.

First 5 Per Cent On You

One thing that cooled enthusiasm for federal tax reform was the discovery that New Frontiersmen thought reform meant putting sharper teeth in a tax bite already drawing too much blood.

A grim sample of their weird interpretation of reform was a proposal to break the back of philanthropy with a gimmick that would give no credit for the first 5 per cent of total income given away. This was a dandy.

Thanks to federal tax laws, colleges, nonprofit organizations, including churches and many other worthy enterprises whose support was tax deductible have had a steel-trap sales talk when they solicited funds.

They could argue that a contribution gave the giver a chance to determine the use of a part of his taxable income, instead of sending everything to Washington for redistribution by politicians. Donors liked the idea.

Tens of thousands of organizations are geared closely to the federal tax laws as far as their capital outlays and current spending are concerned. Any sudden change in the tax laws would throw them into financial despair.

This is precisely what the New Frontier tax reformers were proposing to do—throw them into despair. It was as cruel and heartless as putting up a ladder to rescue the tenants of a burning building, then shooting them on the way down.

If this was their idea of tax reform, who needed it? It would have dried up tax-deductible gifts everywhere but the few places where so much money is sloshing around that it must be ladled out to save the donors from drowning in it.

If you made $5,000 a year and had to give away the first $250 with no tax credit, the next $250 would be a long time coming.

Ordinance Needed

A study discloses that at present there is no city ordinance requiring either householders or business places to clear snow off sidewalks.

We think there should be one, with penalties stiff enough to make sure that the ordinance was observed.

There were too many sidewalks, both in the business and residential sections, that were left uncleaned during the recent cold spells, with dangerous footing resulting.

Council would be wise to correct the situation before next winter by placing a snow-clearing ordinance on the legislative books.

Cloak And Dagger Business

When Allen Dulles, former head of Central Intelligence Agency and presumably the greatest living expert in its secret workings, declares it needs no congressional control because it has such a good record the way it is, he is begging the question.

Those who have been wondering about the CIA do not grant its one-time chief's bland assumption that the agency has been doing so well it stands in no need of congressional control. Neither do they grant his apparent belief in an article prepared for publication that the CIA must try to match the Soviet Union's excellence in spying and the only way it can do this is to remain independent of legislative interference.

THE CIA does not have critics so much as it has skeptics — people who question some of the assumptions underlying its operation. They had not had much to say in this regard until the CIA fiasco in its attempt to mastermind an invasion of Cuba in mid-April 1961.

In the rehashing of this absurdly mis-handled project, everybody and everything have been combed over except the CIA. But scarcely had the last corpses of the fasco been buried than President Kennedy was ordering an investigation of the agency's role in the invasion, and soon thereafter it was known in Washington that Mr. Dulles was going to retire.

He was succeeded in the early fall by John A. McCone, former chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission.

There had crystallized in the meantime a new public attitude about CIA operations. The country had realized for the first time the implications of a government agency that not only supplied information to other government agencies but was capable of becoming an instrument of military policy without congressional sanction or public knowledge.

MR. DULLES is begging the question when he assumes everybody has confidence in the CIA, therefore it needs no control by Congress.

There even are some skeptics in the United States who wonder why it should try to match the Russians in cloak-and-dagger business.

Nearly Everyone Wants To Work

The Ohio Welfare Department says it will go to the Legislature for authority to start a no-work-no-relief policy in Ohio.

It should have no trouble getting the authority it needs. But most recipients of relief will wish the policy could go all the way. Work is what they're wishing they had. If they had work they wouldn't need relief.

The temptation exists to jump to the conclusion that relief rolls are packed with chiselers. To be sure, chislers are there. Chislers are everywhere. Some are on private payrolls. Some are on public payrolls.

A few people — few relative to the many who wouldn't think of doing it — are making careers of public charity, just as in the past mendicants made careers of private charity.

They give the many who must appeal for help in good faith a black eye. The problem is not simple. It is unpleasant and grim.

But it exists. The Ohio Welfare Department is justified in doing what it can to minimize it. Authority to withhold relief from able-bodied recipients who won't work is not an extreme request.

There is no simple, ready-made solution to the problem, however.

The Ohio Welfare Department obviously is not going to punish a family because its potential breadwinner lacks the inclination to work.

It is not going to enforce a policy if it means going back to New Deal Boondoggling in an absence of useful work to be performed.

It is not going to make a fetish of something at the expense of the preponderant majority of relief clients, who want to work and are waiting for a chance to prove it.

Everyone has his own list of expressions that do not really say what they sound like.

It would be a more difficult world if we had to say what we meant or say nothing at all—if we couldn't speak in code.

"It has been so nice to talk with you."

(Meaning, you should bubble over with gratitude because I have stood here like a gargoyle for the last 10 minutes while you bombarded me with a spatter of conversation.)

"Our speaker tonight needs no introduction."

(Meaning, this is one of those touchy situations in which the less said the better because your chairman has heard this joker perform before and what he needs is a police escort out of town.)

"You look swell, fella. Whatever you're doing certainly is agreeing with you."

(Meaning, we all gotta go sometime, fella, but what's the hurry?)

"I am going to put aside the speech I intended to make and talk to you from the heart."

(Meaning, I tried to get something down on paper so I wouldn't make a fool of myself when I got up here, but now that I'm up here making a fool of myself anyway there's no point in compounding the damage by reading this nonsense.)

"Here are some delightful people I want you to meet."

(Meaning, I hate to do this to you, old buddy, but the way you have latched on to me it's now or never and if I hunted all over the hall I couldn't find anyone who deserves you more than these retreads.)

"I move that this matter be referred to the proper committee for thorough study, with a recommendation to be submitted to the board in time for the next meeting."

(Meaning, no one seems to know what to do with this hot potato so let's see if we can roll it around on the shelf till it cools off.)

"I feel as if I had known you for years; I've heard your name mentioned so often."

(Meaning, if you know the difference between zipping up and zipping down, you will pick up this cue, fast, because people whose names get mentioned that often are being slandered up one side and down the other.)

"Old Faithful always has been a tower of strength and the old place won't seem right without him."

(Meaning, it won't seem right but it will seem better because — let's face it — this geezer erupted like clockwork and spent more time second-guessing others than he spent on his own job.)

"How recently have you been to Europe?"

(Meaning, I have been there but RECENTLY, man, and am about to beat you over the head with a resume of descriptions and opinions that will make you want to extend the Monroe Doctrine to individuals.)

"What an adorable baby!"

(Meaning, it is curious that a baby with such a good-looking mother and such an ugly father could inherit everything from its old man and nothing from its mother.)

"Get well soon."

(Meaning, but don't bust a gusset because, well, er, ah, it's like taking a vacation not to have you around. Don't be in any hurry to get up.)

Labor Faces Defensive Fight

By Victor Riesel

Some of President Kennedy's close advisers, including several labor leaders, were gathered around him for a half hour in the White House Fish Room the other day. All of them were deeply worried. Unemployment is mounting. Someone pointed out that joblessness has hit the U. S. harder than any other industrial nation except Canada.

Victor Riesel

Then someone said cut taxes now, cut them heavily or not at all.

"That's good advice," said the President, "but how do I get around Wilbur Mills in Congress?"

The President's reference was to the congressman from Arkansas who heads the all-powerful House Ways and Means Committee, now considering the tax cut proposal. Mr. Mills looks upon a tax cut like a cotton ball does on a boll weevil.

ONE ADVISER then said: "Mr. President, we can only tell you what we think is right. You must handle the political end of it. That's your job."

"That's quite a job," the President said. "Quite a job."

Among those in the Fish Room that morning from whom the President got pledges of support in this "job," were union chiefs Walter Reuther of auto; Dave McDonald of steel; and Joe Keenan of the electrical workers.

These men and the rest of labor's high command now meeting in Bal Harbour, Fla., want such heavy tax cuts — but they believe President Kennedy's plans are "insufficient."

They have, instead, called for a "substantial and immediate cut solely in the first-bracket (lowest) rate, retroactive to the beginning of this year."

Ordinarily support from such influential labor chiefs as Walter Reuther would be formidable. But now labor's high command has some mighty headaches of its own — and needs support istelf.

SELDOM HAS the AFL - CIO Executive Council met in a mid-winter strategy session in so hostile a national atmosphere.

Some of this public antagonism is due to the recent rail, waterfront and transit strikes. But much of the criticism springs from the almost unbelievable newspaper strikes. They have influenced opinion makers who long have been friends of the labor movement.

As a result there will not be the usual outcry across the land against the hurricane of labor-curbing bills which have been introduced by such congressional leaders as Senators McClellan and Goldwater.

This is what's worrying the labor chiefs at their high command conference. They are aware of what the public generally overlooks—the fact that many of these bills have big blocs of congressional sponsors who are powers on the committees to which President Kennedy will have to come for support of his tax and other programs.

THERE CERTAINLY will be an effort to bargain with the President's congressional liaison man—Larry O'Brien, one of the inner "ins" of the White House.

There may not be any new labor laws. But then there may not be any new tax law either.

Sen. McClellan certainly will push hard for his two bills. One of them calls for making transport unions subject to anti-trust laws. This means that these unions, on the docks, over the road, on the rails and in the air can be heavily fined if they strike, or picket, or boycott or even issue an unfair list in this field.

His other bill would give the secretary of defense the power to appoint a board for compulsory arbitration of disputes in defense facilities.

OTHER CONGRESSMEN would place all unions under the anti-trust laws, or under a system of compulsory arbitration; prohibit union shop agreements, or use of union funds for anything but collective bargaining.

And these are but a few of such bills — all stern enough to stir labor into concentrating its energies right through 1964 on this single front. Labor may find itself so busy defending its own lines it will not have much to spare for the President's battles.

Tillich, 76, who came to this country from Germany in 1933, told a news conference in Berkeley, Calif.:

"Communism is not a danger here at all, but conservatism is. What is called conservatism here seems to be a nice name for fascism."

He said one of Hitler's main weapons "was to always attack the Communists when he was really attacking the liberals."

David E. Lilienthal, the first chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, says it should be reorganized so the "contours of its job confirm to our 1963 picture of the atom, not that of 1946 when it was established."

Lilienthal, AEC chairman from 1946 to 1950, made the statement in a speech at Princeton University.

Dr. Paul Dudley White, heart specialist whose patients have included former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, recommends an average of one hour of strenuous exercise daily for the average American.

In a lecture at Tulane University in New Orleans, White suggested that instead of 50-mile hikes, it would be better if people walked two to four miles a day and occasionally walked up a few flights of stairs instead of taking an elevator.

U.N. In Disrepute

By David Lawrence

Cuban Aid Move Stirs New Controversy

Officials of the United Nations are disturbed over the widespread disapproval of that organization's project designed to aid Cuban agriculture. Criticism of the U.N. is being expressed in speeches in Congress by members of both parties.

David Lawrence

The incident is significant because it brings to the fore- front the difference between officials with a superstate concept and spokesmen for a single country like the United States, which happens nowadays to be footing most of the bill of the United Nations.

U.N. officials are quick to point out that the United States isn't paying any of the expense for the Cuban project itself, but they choose to ignore the fact that the U.N. is nevertheless taking a position decidedly at variance with American policy in the "cold war."

It is pointed out on behalf of the U.N. that, out of $89 million for projects in 98 countries, less than $4 million are for projects which the United States has disapproved.

Of the $585 million for approved projects, the countries aided have contributed lands and buildings valued at $343 million.

Of the remaining $242 million, the United States has paid 40 per cent, or about $97 million.

This $97 million comes from American taxpayers. The projects are unquestionably helpful to the countries involved but the United States is paying more than its proportionate share of the total.

THE SAME thing is true, moreover, with reference to all U.N. expenses, particularly the cost of the Congo operations. These are largely paid for by the United States. The question asked here is whether the U.N. really wants American cooperation or whether the supernational philosophy of the U.N. staff is going to imperil such cooperation in the future and lose the help of the American Congress.

The argument of the U.N. officials is that their organization cannot be influenced by the national considerations of any country. Cuba, it is insisted, is a member of the U.N. and thus is entitled to all its privileges. But in answer to this, it may be said that the United States is also a member, with the full right to withhold funds for special projects that go for purposes which could defeat American foreign policies.

The point is made in U.S. circles that if a declaration of war existed between Cuba and the United States, this would immediately interrupt any fund giving or the operations of the U.N. in any belligerent country. No state of war has, of course, been proclaimed.

But U.N. officials overlook the existence of a "cold war" and the fact that billions of dollars are being spent to try to defeat Communist aggression and that American lives are being lost around the world in places like Viet Nam in an effort to check the military operations of the Communists.

Also, in the last few weeks, there has been revealed a military build-up in Cuba by the Soviets as a forerunner of possible aggression in Latin America.

WHEN THE U.N. becomes technical and insists that only a declaration of war can interrupt its help to the Castro regime, the American people, through their representatives in Congress, will also tend to become technical and will insist that no money be voted to the United Nations for projects anywhere under the auspices of the U.N.

Our own so-called "foreign aid" program can take over all American assistance to foreign countries without channeling any of it through the U.N. At least the United States would then have some leverage in the situation and have something to say directly about where the projects will be launched.

The fact remains that the Soviet government has taken over Cuba by conquest from within. A people for whom American soldiers and sailors died a few decades ago, to liberate the island from Spain, have lost their independence.

A base has been established in Cuba to take over other Latin-American coountries. For the U.N. to give financial aid and comfort to the Communist government in Cuba is brazen indifference to President Kennedy's desire to "quarantine" the island and keep foreign shipping out.

This certainly is not going to enhance the reputation of the U.N. inside the United States.

The American people perhaps have not given as much attention as they should to the constructive work that has been done by the special funds agency of the U.N., which indeed deserves encouragement.

BUT THE BLUNDER in Cuba can only retard the continuance of such aid from the United States.

This controversy has not become a partisan matter in Congress. Spokesmen for both political parties have criticized the U.N. action. Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, chairman of the subcommittee of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which is investigating the controversial U.N. project, points out that Cuba is in arrears in its regular dues payments to the U.N.

He says the United States should have protested vigorously against the U.N.'s new project. He declares Cuba is a "special case" for U.N. consideration, because it is being used as a military base by Russia "in violation of the spirit of the U.N. Charter."

Special Kind Of Life

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Senators and representatives have a special kind of life in government.

A check, minor or major, is made on all employes of the executive branch for behavior or loyalty. The FBI checks all federal judges and district attorneys before they take office.

The White House requires FBI investigations of the men the president appoints to high office.

Absolutely no check is made on members of Congress even though some of them in closed-door hearings hear highly secret information. For instance, members of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee.

There is no law saying members of Congress must be checked over. In the executive branch some checking is done on every employe and the FBI can be called in under presidential order going back to 1953.

Generally, the staffs in the various federal courts are not investigated although in some exceptional cases a judge may request one. Court employes are seldom, perhaps never, privy to secret government information involving national security.

While there's a law against letting present or former government employes sweeten their pocketbook because of their government connection — the conflict of interest law — no such law applies to members of Congress.

Thus a senator with a fortune in oil is free to plug for a bill that benefits the oil industry. He's not apt to brag that he has some self-interest in what he is doing.

No check is made on the staffs of the 535 members of Congress—they run up into the thousands—unless for some reason a senator or representative asks the FBI to investigate a specific individual.

Nor is any FBI check made on the staff employes of the various committees of Congress except in some special and limited cases when the committee chairman asks the FBI to step in.

That happens in the case of employes of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee and employes of the Foreign Relations, Armed Services and Appropriations committees of both houses.

This may be done — although hardly in the case of the Atomic Energy Committee—on an individual basis, depending on what employe the chairman wants checked.

These committees, by their nature, are exposed to some of the most delicate government information. Therefore, their staff members might have access to it.

In these investigations the FBI turns its information over to the committee chairman requesting it. He is the one who decides whether a staff employe should be retained or fired.

Then the information goes back to the FBI files for secrecy and safe-keeping. Otherwise, it might wind up being gossiped around the halls of Congress.

Last October President Kennedy signed a new law tightening and broadening the scope of existing conflict of interest regulations.

First 5 Per Cent On You

One thing that cooled enthusiasm for federal tax reform was the discovery that New Frontiersmen thought reform meant putting sharper teeth in a tax bite already drawing too much blood.

A grim sample of their weird interpretation of reform was a proposal to break the back of philanthropy with a gimmick that would give no credit for the first 5 per cent of total income given away. This was a dandy.

Thanks to federal tax laws, colleges, nonprofit organizations, including churches and many other worthy enterprises whose support was tax deductible have had a steel-trap sales talk when they solicited funds.

They could argue that a contribution gave the giver a chance to determine the use of a part of his taxable income, instead of sending everything to Washington for redistribution by politicians. Donors liked the idea.

THERE CERTAINLY will be an effort to bargain with the President's congressional liaison man—Larry O'Brien, one of the inner "ins" of the White House.

There may not be any new labor laws. But then there may not be any new tax law either.

Sen. McClellan certainly will push hard for his two bills. One of them calls for making transport unions subject to anti-trust laws. This means that these unions, on the docks, over the road, on the rails and in the air can be heavily fined if they strike, or picket, or boycott or even issue an unfair list in this field.

His other bill would give the secretary of defense the power to appoint a board for compulsory arbitration of disputes in defense facilities.

OTHER CONGRESSMEN would place all unions under the anti-trust laws, or under a system of compulsory arbitration; prohibit union shop agreements, or use of union funds for anything but collective bargaining.

And these are but a few of such bills — all stern enough to stir labor into concentrating its energies right through 1964 on this single front. Labor may find itself so busy defending its own lines it will not have much to spare for the President's battles.

Theologian Paul Tillich says conservatism threatens American security.

Tillich, 76, who came to this country from Germany in 1933, told a news conference in Berkeley, Calif.:

"Communism is not a danger here at all, but conservatism is. What is called conservatism here seems to be a nice name for fascism."

He said one of Hitler's main weapons "was to always attack the Communists when he was really attacking the liberals."

David E. Lilienthal, the first chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, says it should be reorganized so the "contours of its job confirm to our 1963 picture of the atom, not that of 1946 when it was established."

Lilienthal, AEC chairman from 1946 to 1950, made the statement in a speech at Princeton University.

Dr. Paul Dudley White, heart specialist whose patients have included former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, recommends an average of one hour of strenuous exercise daily for the average American.

In a lecture at Tulane University in New Orleans, White suggested that instead of 50-mile hikes, it would be better if people walked two to four miles a day and occasionally walked up a few flights of stairs instead of taking an elevator.

U.N. In Disrepute

By David Lawrence

Cuban Aid Move Stirs New Controversy

Officials of the United Nations are disturbed over the widespread disapproval of that organization's project designed to aid Cuban agriculture. Criticism of the U.N. is being expressed in speeches in Congress by members of both parties.

David Lawrence

The incident is significant because it brings to the fore- front the difference between officials with a superstate concept and spokesmen for a single country like the United States, which happens nowadays to be footing most of the bill of the United Nations.

U.N. officials are quick to point out that the United States isn't paying any of the expense for the Cuban project itself, but they choose to ignore the fact that the U.N. is nevertheless taking a position decidedly at variance with American policy in the "cold war."

It is pointed out on behalf of the U.N. that, out of $89 million for projects in 98 countries, less than $4 million are for projects which the United States has disapproved.

Of the $585 million for approved projects, the countries aided have contributed lands and buildings valued at $343 million.

Of the remaining $242 million, the United States has paid 40 per cent, or about $97 million.

This $97 million comes from American taxpayers. The projects are unquestionably helpful to the countries involved but the United States is paying more than its proportionate share of the total.

THE SAME thing is true, moreover, with reference to all U.N. expenses, particularly the cost of the Congo operations. These are largely paid for by the United States. The question asked here is whether the U.N. really wants American cooperation or whether the supernational philosophy of the U.N. staff is going to imperil such cooperation in the future and lose the help of the American Congress.

The argument of the U.N. officials is that their organization cannot be influenced by the national considerations of any country. Cuba, it is insisted, is a member of the U.N. and thus is entitled to all its privileges. But in answer to this, it may be said that the United States is also a member, with the full right to withhold funds for special projects that go for purposes which could defeat American foreign policies.

The point is made in U.S. circles that if a declaration of war existed between Cuba and the United States, this would immediately interrupt any fund giving or the operations of the U.N. in any belligerent country. No state of war has, of course, been proclaimed.

But U.N. officials overlook the existence of a "cold war" and the fact that billions of dollars are being spent to try to defeat Communist aggression and that American lives are being lost around the world in places like Viet Nam in an effort to check the military operations of the Communists.

Also, in the last few weeks, there has been revealed a military build-up in Cuba by the Soviets as a forerunner of possible aggression in Latin America.

WHEN THE U.N. becomes technical and insists that only a declaration of war can interrupt its help to the Castro regime, the American people, through their representatives in Congress, will also tend to become technical and will insist that no money be voted to the United Nations for projects anywhere under the auspices of the U.N.

Our own so-called "foreign aid" program can take over all American assistance to foreign countries without channeling any of it through the U.N. At least the United States would then have some leverage in the situation and have something to say directly about where the projects will be launched.

The fact remains that the Soviet government has taken over Cuba by conquest from within. A people for whom American soldiers and sailors died a few decades ago, to liberate the island from Spain, have lost their independence.

A base has been established in Cuba to take over other Latin-American countries. For the U.N. to give financial aid and comfort to the Communist government in Cuba is brazen indifference to President Kennedy's desire to "quarantine" the island and keep foreign shipping out.

This certainly is not going to enhance the reputation of the U.N. inside the United States.

The American people perhaps have not given as much attention as they should to the constructive work that has been done by the special funds agency of the U.N., which indeed deserves encouragement.

BUT THE BLUNDER in Cuba can only retard the continuance of such aid from the United States.

This controversy has not become a partisan matter in Congress. Spokesmen for both political parties have criticized the U.N. action. Sen. Frank Church, D-Idaho, chairman of the subcommittee of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee which is investigating the controversial U.N. project, points out that Cuba is in arrears in its regular dues payments to the U.N.

He says the United States should have protested vigorously against the U.N.'s new project. He declares Cuba is a "special case" for U.N. consideration, because it is being used as a military base by Russia "in violation of the spirit of the U.N. Charter."

Special Kind Of Life

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

Senators and representatives have a special kind of life in government.

A check, minor or major, is made on all employes of the executive branch for behavior or loyalty. The FBI checks all federal judges and district attorneys before they take office.

The White House requires FBI investigations of the men the president appoints to high office.

Absolutely no check is made on members of Congress even though some of them in closed-door hearings hear highly secret information. For instance, members of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee.

There is no law saying members of Congress must be checked over. In the executive branch some checking is done on every employe and the FBI can be called in under presidential order going back to 1953.

Generally, the staffs in the various federal courts are not investigated although in some exceptional cases a judge may request one. Court employes are seldom, perhaps never, privy to secret government information involving national security.

While there's a law against letting present or former government employes sweeten their pocketbook because of their government connection — the conflict of interest law — no such law applies to members of Congress.

Thus a senator with a fortune in oil is free to plug for a bill that benefits the oil industry. He's not apt to brag that he has some self-interest in what he is doing.

No check is made on the staffs of the 535 members of Congress—they run up into the thousands—unless for some reason a senator or representative asks the FBI to investigate a specific individual.

Nor is any FBI check made on the staff employes of the various committees of Congress except in some special and limited cases when the committee chairman asks the FBI to step in.

That happens in the case of employes of the Joint Atomic Energy Committee and employes of the Foreign Relations, Armed Services and Appropriations committees of both houses.

This may be done — although hardly in the case of the Atomic Energy Committee—on an individual basis, depending on what employe the chairman wants checked.

These committees, by their nature, are exposed to some of the most delicate government information. Therefore, their staff members might have access to it.

In these investigations the FBI turns its information over to the committee chairman requesting it. He is the one who decides whether a staff employe should be retained or fired.

Then the information goes back to the FBI files for secrecy and safe-keeping. Otherwise, it might wind up being gossiped around the halls of Congress.

Last October President Kennedy signed a new law tightening and broadening the scope of existing conflict of interest regulations.

An exchange of insults between a hitch - hiker and a motorist Tuesday afternoon on outer Dresden Ave. led to a fight that sent one young man to City Hospital and caused the arrest of the other, police reported.

The hitch - hiker, Charles Braham, 20, of Lisbon R. D. 2, was treated at the hospital for bruises and superficial lacerations of the nose.

The motorist, Frank A. Fisher Jr., 20, of Calcutta, was charged with assault and battery in an affidavit filed by Braham.

Braham was taken to the hospital about 1 p. m. by Frank Mangano of W. 7th St., who said he found the injured youth on Dresden Ave. near the temporary junction with the new freeway, police said.

Patrolman Willam A. Devon was sent to investigate the cause of Braham's injury. Braham told the officer he was hitch - hiking when Fisher came along in an auto and "called me a name." Braham responded and Fisher alighted from his auto and beat him, he said.

Police said Fisher had just driven away when Mangano arrived on the scene and picked up the injured youth.

Fisher was taken into custody at 1:44 p. m. on E. 8th St. by Officer Devon, police said.

Fisher was fined $25 and costs today when he pleaded guilty to the charge before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff. The judge suspended the fine on payment of the $7.50 costs and Fisher's pledge to pay the medical expenses of Braham.

Boy, 16, Tells About Killing 5 In Family

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — A high school youth whose broodings, over his place in the family circle exploded into a burst of gunfire, has told authorities how he shot and killed his father and stepmother and her three children.

Harry Hebard, 16, described by his minister as "a good, quiet boy who was real active in the church," apparently had planned the slayings for some time, according to Dist. Atty. Robert Warren.

The boy was scheduled for arraignment today on first-degree murder charges. Warren said he will seek a psychiatric examination for him.

Harry, a high school junior, surrendered meekly Tuesday about six hours after the bodies were found in the family home.

Killed by shots from an automatic pistol and rifle were the boy's stepmother, Joyce, 35; her three children by a previous marriage, John Rudell, 15, and Judy and Janice, 11-year-old twins; and Harry's thrice - married father, Jack Hebard, 38, a part-time automobile thrill driver and stunt man.

William Davis, vice president, presided in the absence of Donald Hancock, president, who was ill. Leo Payne, chairman of the city Democratic Central Committee, introduced candidates in the May 7 primaries.

The group voted to endorse a request of the East Liverpool Typographical Union for enactment of an ordinance prohibiting the "importation" of strike - breakers during a labor dispute. Next meeting is March 19.

Area Woman Wrecks Auto

A Glenmoor woman escaped injury Tuesday night when her car went into a ditch at Glenn St. and the Y. & O. Rd. while an East Palestine man suffered minor injuries when his car rammed a utility pole just north of East Palestine early today, disrupting power service.

The Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon said Mildred Hall, 34, of Glenmoor was driving south on the Y. & O. Rd. and making a turn onto Glenn St. about 10:45 p. m. when the car ran over an embankment and into the ditch.

Damage was moderate, according to officers, who cited her for traveling at a speed in excess of safe road conditions.

Officers were continuing investigation of the mishap in which Perry Guy of Rogers Addition suffered abrasions of the face and an eye laceration about 2 a. m.

The patrol said Guy was headed north on N. Market St. Ext. when his car struck the city power line pole, snapping it off and disrupting power service to an area north of the city.

A city crew made temporary line repairs and restored power. The auto was heavily damaged.

House Unit Urges Board For State Universities

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A bill to create a board of regents for state universities came out of a House committee Tuesday night, but another bill to modify Ohio's "Spirit of '76" law appeared buried under an avalanche of opposition in a Senate committee.

The board of regents bill is a substitute for the original measure sponsored by the administration of Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes.

The board would be made up of nine members serving nine-year terms.

It also would increase the membership of the boards of trustees of five of the six state universities from seven to nine and slash the membership of the Miami University board from 27 to nine.

The measure drew what appeared to be somewhat less-than-enthusiastic support from Dr. Novice G. Fawcett, president of Ohio State University, and Dr. Robert I. White, president-elect of Kent State University. Dr. John D. Millett, president of Miami, said the measure had his hearty support because "some sort of coordinating agency is absolutely essential."

One of the more serious objections to the bill was overcome by dropping a provision that the speaker of the House, the president pro tempore of the Senate and the attorney general would be ex officio members of the board of regents. Some opponents of the provision had expressed fear the legislature would be in a position to exercise more than purse-string control over the state universities.

Veterans' and patriotic groups showed up in force to oppose any change in the present law, effective in 1955, which requires basic instruction in American history and government before public school pupils may receive instruction in socialism, communism, world government, United Nations and economics.

Witnesses told the Senate Education Committee present law is workable and is no bar to a proper progression of instruction.

Sen. Ross Pepple, R-Allen, indicated there will be no further hearings on the bill sponsored by Sen. Oliver Ocasek, D-Summit, at the request of Akron school officials.

House Unit Urges Board For State Universities

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A bill to create a board of regents for state universities came out of a House committee Tuesday night, but another bill to modify Ohio's "Spirit of '76" law appeared buried under an avalanche of opposition in a Senate committee.

The board of regents bill is a substitute for the original measure sponsored by the administration of Republican Gov. James A. Rhodes.

The board would be made up of nine members serving nine-year terms.

It also would increase the membership of the boards of trustees of five of the six state universities from seven to nine and slash the membership of the Miami University board from 27 to nine.

The measure drew what appeared to be somewhat less-than-enthusiastic support from Dr. Novice G. Fawcett, president of Ohio State University, and Dr. Robert I. White, president-elect of Kent State University. Dr. John D. Millett, president of Miami, said the measure had his hearty support because "some sort of coordinating agency is absolutely essential."

One of the more serious objections to the bill was overcome by dropping a provision that the speaker of the House, the president pro tempore of the Senate and the attorney general would be ex officio members of the board of regents. Some opponents of the provision had expressed fear the legislature would be in a position to exercise more than purse-string control over the state universities.

Veterans' and patriotic groups showed up in force to oppose any change in the present law, effective in 1955, which requires basic instruction in American history and government before public school pupils may receive instruction in socialism, communism, world government, United Nations and economics.

Witnesses told the Senate Education Committee present law is workable and is no bar to a proper progression of instruction.

Deaths and Funerals

Retired Crane Operator Dies

Ammon Leroy Tyndall, 64, of Beaver Falls, a native of Industry, died early this morning at the Rochester General Hospital, following a brief illness.

A former resident of Rochester, he was born May 20, 1898, to the late William Tyndall and Harriett Lulton Tyndall.

He resided in Beaver Falls for six years and was a retired crane operator. His wife, Mrs. Inez Michael Tyndall, died in 1958.

He leaves a son, Clifford A. Tyndall of Wickliffe, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Charles (Ruth) Hatt, with whom he resided; two half-brothers, Francis Murray of Midland and Leroy Murray of East Liverpool, and four grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday at 2 p. m. at the J. T. Anderson Jr. Funeral Home, 205 College Ave., Beaver, by the Rev. Donald J. Joiner, pastor of the Riverview Evangelical United Brethren Church in Beaver Falls. Burial will be in Oak Grove Cemetery, Industry.

Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 tonight.

Mrs. Ralph Wise

Mrs. Ella Pugh Wise, 58, of Zanesville, a native of Hancock County, died Tuesday morning at 7:25 in Good Samaritan Hospital in Zanesville after a lengthy illness. She had been a patient two weeks.

She was born in Pughtown to the late Nora Dennis Pugh and Joseph Pugh. She was a member of the Baptist Church of Zanesville, where she had resided 12 years, moving from Mansfield.

Survivors include her husband, Ralph Wise at home; a daughter, Mrs. Rosellen Tetter of Mansfield; two sisters, Mrs. Verna Robertson of Aliquippa and Miss Edna Pugh of Steubenville; two brothers, Cecil D. Pugh of Chester and John Pugh of Steubenville, and two grandchildren.

Services will be held Friday afternoon at the Baker & DeLong Funeral Home in Zanesville with burial there.

Infant Gamble

Services for Billy Joe Gamble, day-old son of Lester Gamble and Gloria Van Dyke Gamble of Fredericktown, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Martin Funeral Home.

Dr. Alexander K. Davison, minister of the First United Presbyterian Church officiated and burial was in Columbiana County Memorial Park.

The infant died Monday evening at City Hospital.

Survivors include three sisters, Miss Theresa Gamble, Pamela Van Dyke and Peggy Lee Gamble, all at home, and a half-brother, Ralph Gamble of California.

Mrs. Bessie Boyles

Services for Mrs. Bessie Jane Boyles, 80, of Sistersville, mother of Forrest Boyles of Midland, were held this morning at the Campbell - Frame Funeral Home in Sistersville by Evangelist Charles Aebi. Burial was in the Boyles Cemetery.

Mrs. Boyles died Monday morning at the Sistersville Hospital. She was born in Tyler County Feb. 3, 1883, to George Fetty and Ann Pyle Fetty. Her husband, Emery E. Boyles, died in 1960.

A daughter, two other sons, three brothers, two sisters, eight grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren also survive.

Mrs. Fannie Chancey

LISBON — Mrs. Fannie Ludwig Chancey, 255 W. Washington St., died at 4:30 a.m. today at Salem City Hospital, which she entered three days ago. She was 83.

Born Oct. 24, 1879, in Jackson County, W. Va., to Isaac Spears and Annie Richison Spears, she came to Lisbon to reside with a daughter about 14 months ago.

She was a member of the First Missionary Baptist Church at Ripley, W. Va.

Mrs. Chancey is survived by four daughters, Mrs. Fleta Riggs of Lisbon, Mrs. Ollie Clegg of Akron, Mrs. Pauline Small of Dearborn, Mich., and Mrs. Nina Schuler of Pompano Beach, Fla.; six sons, William Ludwig of Lisbon, Dan Ludwig and Homer Ludwig of East Liverpool, Oliver Ludwig of Parkersburg, Jack Ludwig of Pompano Beach and M. Wellsville Fire Chief Warns On Peril Of Improper Fuse

A warning against the use of fuses too large for home wiring circuits was issued today by Fire Chief Robert Lewis of Wellsville after the department answered the third call in the past few weeks in which a fire was caused by an electrical fixture or extension cord.

The department was called Tuesday at 11:15 a. m. to the home of Salvatore Vescio, 1221 Center St., when the cord on iron shorted. The damage was confined to the cord and the kitchen floor covering.

In each instance, the cord or appliance shorted out and did not blow the fuse in the home entrance box, the chief said.

In yesterday's call there was a direct short and it did not blow a 30-amp fuse being used in the circuit.

The chief said in all three cases the department has checked the fuses to be sure they had not been tampered with. In each case nothing was wrong except the homeowner was using 30-amp fuses which are just too heavy for normal use, he commented.

Lewis said no more than a 15-amp fuse should be used on a light circuit and no more than 20 amps on plug circuits.

A 30-amp fuse should never be used unless the circuit is plainly labeled that it requires this heavy type.

The homeowner should definitely specify what type of fuse wanted when purchasing them as many times the store clerk will just hand out the larger size without thinking.

Many believe that the larger fuses are safe with new wiring, but this is not true, Lewis said. He said if anyone doubts the damage that can be caused they should stop in at the station. He said he will show them various fixtures and an extension cord to demonstrate what damage a 30-amp fuse in the circuit can cause.

Driver Jailed For 'Loaning' Youth Permit

Edward R. Waltz, 25, of McKees Rocks was given two concurrent 10-day County Jail terms today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on charges he "loaned" his driver's license to a 17-year-old boy and allowed him to operate an auto in East Liverpool early Sunday.

Waltz pleaded guilty to both counts — loaning his permit to a minor and permitting an unlicensed minor to operate a motor vehicle. Judge Chertoff ruled that Waltz will be given credit for the three days he has been in custody in City Jail awaiting a hearing.

Patrolman Paul Carter, one of the officers who cited Waltz at 3:18 a. m. Sunday on Wyoming Ave., said his attention was directed to the auto because it was being driven on the wrong side of the center line on Lisbon St. and also crashed a traffic light. Investigation disclosed that the youthful driver was using the operator's permit issued to Waltz, he said.

Questioned by the court, Waltz said he and the minor borrowed the car to make a trip to a McKees Rocks bowling alley. Instead, he said, they drove to Steubenville and then headed upriver on Route 7. He said he became sleepy and allowed the 17-year-old to drive, although he did not have a permit.

When the youth crashed a traffic light and a police cruiser approached, the minor asked to borrow Waltz's driver's permit, the defendant related.

Waltz was held in jail in default of a $250 bond, awaiting the hearing today. Arraigned Monday, he asked time to consult with an attorney. However, he appeared for trial today without counsel.

Waltz also has been cited into Juvenile Court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor — an accusation growing out of the same incident here, police said.

If you are planning to use frozen pineapple juice in a gelatin dessert, boil the juice for a couple of minutes before using. This boiling inactivates certain enzymes in frozen (and fresh) pineapple that interfere with the jelling process.

Probe

The FBI identified the other defendants as:

Joseph Pecora, 43, Abe Silverhart, 56, Dominic A. Bieno, 66, and Louis Anzelone, 25, all of Pittsburgh; Sidney Bahm, 54, of McKeesport; Peter Short, 57, of White Oak Borough, Pittsburgh; Joseph Rizzo, 54, of Glassport; Domenick Caputo, 58, of Hollywood, Fla., and Youngstown; Michael Simmera, 40, Joseph Tamburro, 50, and Alex Zryni, all of Steubenville.

A 12th defendant, Charles F. Teemer, 62, of Hollywood, Fla., is the reputed manager of the Jockey Club. The FBI said Joseph Pecora is the acting manager.

Also arrested at the Jockey Club by State Police after the FBI raid was Vincent Pecora, 38, of Carolina Ave., Chester, who is slated for a hearing Saturday before Weirton Squire Thomas Bellanco on a charge of keeping and exhibiting gambling equipment.

Both the FBI and State Police confiscated gambling equipment in their raids at the Jockey Club near the Pennsylvania border.

The department was called Tuesday at 11:15 a. m. to the home of Salvatore Vescio, 1221 Center St., when the cord on iron shorted. The damage was confined to the cord and the kitchen floor covering.

In each instance, the cord or appliance shorted out and did not blow the fuse in the home entrance box, the chief said.

In yesterday's call there was a direct short and it did not blow a 30-amp fuse being used in the circuit.

The chief said in all three cases the department has checked the fuses to be sure they had not been tampered with. In each case nothing was wrong except the homeowner was using 30-amp fuses which are just too heavy for normal use, he commented.

Lewis said no more than a 15-amp fuse should be used on a light circuit and no more than 20 amps on plug circuits.

A 30-amp fuse should never be used unless the circuit is plainly labeled that it requires this heavy type.

The homeowner should definitely specify what type of fuse wanted when purchasing them as many times the store clerk will just hand out the larger size without thinking.

Many believe that the larger fuses are safe with new wiring, but this is not true, Lewis said. He said if anyone doubts the damage that can be caused they should stop in at the station. He said he will show them various fixtures and an extension cord to demonstrate what damage a 30-amp fuse in the circuit can cause.

Driver Jailed For 'Loaning' Youth Permit

Edward R. Waltz, 25, of McKees Rocks was given two concurrent 10-day County Jail terms today by Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on charges he "loaned" his driver's license to a 17-year-old boy and allowed him to operate an auto in East Liverpool early Sunday.

Waltz pleaded guilty to both counts — loaning his permit to a minor and permitting an unlicensed minor to operate a motor vehicle. Judge Chertoff ruled that Waltz will be given credit for the three days he has been in custody in City Jail awaiting a hearing.

Patrolman Paul Carter, one of the officers who cited Waltz at 3:18 a. m. Sunday on Wyoming Ave., said his attention was directed to the auto because it was being driven on the wrong side of the center line on Lisbon St. and also crashed a traffic light. Investigation disclosed that the youthful driver was using the operator's permit issued to Waltz, he said.

Questioned by the court, Waltz said he and the minor borrowed the car to make a trip to a McKees Rocks bowling alley. Instead, he said, they drove to Steubenville and then headed upriver on Route 7. He said he became sleepy and allowed the 17-year-old to drive, although he did not have a permit.

When the youth crashed a traffic light and a police cruiser approached, the minor asked to borrow Waltz's driver's permit, the defendant related.

Waltz was held in jail in default of a $250 bond, awaiting the hearing today. Arraigned Monday, he asked time to consult with an attorney. However, he appeared for trial today without counsel.

Waltz also has been cited into Juvenile Court on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor — an accusation growing out of the same incident here, police said.

If you are planning to use frozen pineapple juice in a gelatin dessert, boil the juice for a couple of minutes before using. This boiling inactivates certain enzymes in frozen (and fresh) pineapple that interfere with the jelling process.

Probe

The FBI identified the other defendants as:

Joseph Pecora, 43, Abe Silverhart, 56, Dominic A. Bieno, 66, and Louis Anzelone, 25, all of Pittsburgh; Sidney Bahm, 54, of McKeesport; Peter Short, 57, of White Oak Borough, Pittsburgh; Joseph Rizzo, 54, of Glassport; Domenick Caputo, 58, of Hollywood, Fla., and Youngstown; Michael Simmera, 40, Joseph Tamburro, 50, and Alex Zryni, all of Steubenville.

A 12th defendant, Charles F. Teemer, 62, of Hollywood, Fla., is the reputed manager of the Jockey Club. The FBI said Joseph Pecora is the acting manager.

Also arrested at the Jockey Club by State Police after the FBI raid was Vincent Pecora, 38, of Carolina Ave., Chester, who is slated for a hearing Saturday before Weirton Squire Thomas Bellanco on a charge of keeping and exhibiting gambling equipment.

Both the FBI and State Police confiscated gambling equipment in their raids at the Jockey Club near the Pennsylvania border.

Regional Planning Group Makes County Proposals

LISBON — The study committee on regional planning for Columbiana County has made its recomendation to Columbiana County commissioners. The three-point proposal includes:

(1) A Columbiana County Regional Planning Commission be appointed as soon as possible. The commission should be of the regional type rather than the county type to permit the municipalities to participate. The area to be included should be all of Columbiana County, and the committee should serve without pay.

(2) THE commission should be large enough, and members should be carefully selected, so as to be representative of all interests and of all areas in the county. If possible, some of the members should be able to give considerable free time to the work.

(3) The first phase of planning for Columbiana County be undertaken in 1963 with the work to be done by commission members with the counsel of consultant, and the second and third phases to be activated in the future.

First phase includes: (A) A specific program of education and information on the purpose, duties and limitations of a planning commission must be initiated immediately and must accompany all phases of work.

Facilities for this program shall include newspaper articles, radio announcements, talks at group meetings and a list of speakers on the subject to be made available to service clubs, Granges, Farm Bureau Councils, women's clubs and other groups.

(B) COLLECT and record data on the existing situation as a basis for further development—land use, population, trade, transportation facilities, local government, taxes and public finances, parks and recreational areas, housing, utilities and service industries, natural resources, economic base and financial resources, residential and industrial areas, water supplies and sewage disposal, social institutions and organizations and industry and labor.

Second phase includes: (A) Continuation of an educational program to keep the people informed.

(B) Preparation of a comprehensive plan for the future and orderly economic development of Columbiana County, based upon the facts in the present situation and their trends, and to include such items as may be determined by the planning commission. It shall include essential data and maps as well as proposed future arrangements or developments in selected phases of work.

THIRD PHASE — Continuation of informational program to the people, preparation and adoption of subdivision regulations where needed, preparation of a zoning plan for townships and municipalities that wish to adopt zoning regulations, initiation of various improvement programs proposed in the comprehensive plan, continuation of the study of the problems confronting the people of the county.

Fourth phase — County commissioners and the participating municipalities appropriate such funds as may be necessary to carry on the work of the commission. In the event sufficient public funds are not available, financial aid be accepted from other sources.

Fifth phase — Problems confronting the people of the county makes the need of a planning commission apparent because:

THERE is need for more economical use of county and municipal services and for co-ordinating progress in the development of their use, suburban homes are being built without provisions for adequate sewage and water systems and for adequate roads and streets; the county is not receiving its share of new industrial development in Ohio.

It found 28.9 per cent of the labor force in Columbiana County works outside the county whereas the average Ohio county has but 11.3 per cent outside. Little effort has been made to publicize Columbiana County to attract industry.

To improve the economy, farm income needs should be supplemented by development of new sources of income, location of major highways should be co-ordinated with the future growth of the county, development of recreational areas should be promoted to increase the economic return to the county and planning for the greatest and most efficient use of land according to its capabilities is essential.

Floyd Lower, county agriculture agent, is chairman of the committee. The group was appointed by Atty. Donald Elliott of Rogers. The first regional planning request came from the Mayors Association in 1961.

Then another group, principally taxpayers, asked to have the issue discussed by a committee. Commissioners requested that Elliott pick a committee and go over the possibilities of planning for the entire county.

Commissioners have not set up any meetings with this group as members attended several of their meetings in person.

Do Overweight Children Outgrow Fat?

About the roly-poly fat child, there are two erroneous notions. One is that she is the picture of health and naturally stronger than children of normal weight. The other is summed up with "Oh, well, she'll outgrow the fat in time."

Ida Jean Kain

But contrary to the old-fashioned belief, excessive fat is unhealthy at any age. Doctors no longer defend overweight even in young children. And if the fat is to be "outgrown," the young appetite must be curbed until the child reaches the age when that weight is normal for her years and stature.

Overweight in children often starts innocently. Mother prides herself on her cooking and her reward for hours in the kitchen is the keen enjoyment with which the family relishes her pies and cakes and cookies.

BELIEVING that growing children need plenty of food — any kind of food — she is unlikely to discourage overeating. It's true that youngsters do need plenty of nutritious foods but to condone a child in stuffing herself is to establish an unhealthy habit.

The child who starts out overweight runs every chance of being burdened with the excess for years, perhaps for life. The earlier she acquires the habit of overeating and the longer it persists, the more firmly it becomes rooted.

And, as many a youngster can testify, it's no fun to be a "fatty." One ex-roly-poly — who slimmed down only after she had grown up, married and had a child of her own—writes:

"I was a very chubby child and hated being fat. My older brothers and sisters teased me constantly about my size. But nobody told me what to do about it.

"I always supposed I'd have to starve in order to lose weight and it was hard for me, with my tremendous appetite, to think of cutting down. If only some adult had taken my overweight seriously!"

An overweight child can lose weight simply by curbing her appetite to keep her weight at a standstill while she grows up to it. Authorities suggest cutting out one fattener at a time. It's a good start just to limit potatoes and gravy to a single helping.

Later on, cut out the extra slice of bread and butter. And keep to the simple desserts.

—:—

TO GET THE child's wholehearted cooperation, watch for the moment when she is miserable about being a little butterball, then point out that she need only to stop overeating to change her weight and have lots more fun.

Ohio's School Heads Vote To Oppose Tax Bill

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)— Ohio's school superintendents have voted unanimously to oppose a bill that would permit local school districts to enact a maximum one per cent personal and corporation income tax.

More than 300 of the superintendents met here Tuesday in conjunction with the 95th annual convention of the American Association of School Administrators.

The bill is undergoing hearing in the Ohio House Taxation Committee and has brought opposition from other educational groups.

L. D. Shuter, executive secretary of the State Teachers Retirement System, told the superintendents that Ohio apparently will not be able to meet its quarterly distribution of funds to the retirement system due at the end of this month.

Shuter said the February payment will be delayed about one month until April 1. He said about 7,000 corporations in Ohio are being asked to make an early payment of their franchise tax so the May distribution of the state foundation program fund can be met.

Ex-President's Kin Will Christen A-Sub

VALLEJO, Calif. (AP) — The 18th Polaris nuclear submarine will be christened the USS Woodrow Wilson by a granddaughter of the late president, the Navy said today.

Miss Eleanor Axson Sayre of Cambridge, Mass., will swing the bottle against the bow of the 425 foot missile-armed underseas craft at Mare Island Naval Shipyard Friday.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

NORTHERN OHIO — Temperatures will average 11 to 14 degrees below normal. Normal high 35 - 38, normal low 20-24. Cold through early next week, little day-to-day change, lowest expected about Sunday. Precipitation will average about two-tenths of an inch melted with locally heavier amounts near Lake Erie.

24,000 May Get Jobless Money Under Court Rule

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—An estimated 24,000 persons may be eligible to collect some money as the result of a ruling by the 10th District Court of Appeals.

They are the ones who were collecting unemployment compensation on Oct. 16, 1959, when the Ohio Legislature raised weekly benefits from $33 to $42. They continued to get $33, and the Appeals Court ruled Tuesday that they are entitled to the difference.

Paul Kramer of Columbus, an automobile parts company employe, brought suit. Officials said Kramer is entitled to about $200 and, if each claimant is entitled to that much, the total could reach $4.8 million. But they said it is more likely to be around $1 million.

Donald B. Leach, administrator of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, has appealed 600 cases in 66 counties to increase charges against employers to make up for the additional money that has to be paid.

If your kitchen counter space is limited and you like to bake, get in the habit of measuring and sifting dry ingredients as the first step in your baking. Then you can put away the containers holding the dry ingredients and have free counter space for the rest of the procedure.

Photoengravers And Publishers To Resume Talks

CLEVELAND (AP) — Negotiations were to resume today between Cleveland's newspaper publishers and the Photoengravers, termed by a management spokesman as one of two key unions in ending the city's longest newspaper strike, now in its 83rd day.

The Photoengravers have a bargaining session scheduled for this afternoon. The union, while not on strike, has given its negotiators strike authority. Wages and hours are at issue.

Unions on strike against the city's two daily newspapers are the Cleveland Newspaper Guild, Teamsters, Printers, Mailers and Machinists.

The Guild, however, has reached a tentative settlement.

Guildsmen at both the Plain Dealer and the Press and News have scheduled unit meetings for Friday to hold ratification votes on terms of a two-year contract to which negotiators agreed Monday.

Arrowroot is sometimes called for, as a thickening agent, in old-fashioned or epicurean recipes. It is not widely available nowadays but you may be able to find it in the fancy grocery section of a department store or in a specialty food store.

Chester Lights Replaced

A crew of the Monongahela Power Co. today was erecting some nine new mercury vapor lights near schools and churches in Chester, recently ordered by Council. The 700-candlepower lights will replace present 250-candlepower lights in a move to provide better illumination.

Students To Hear Engineer

C. Eugene Myers, an employe of the Vanco Engineering Co. of Beaver and member of the Pennsylvania Society of Professional Engineers, will address interested students of the Western Beaver High School in Industry Thursday afternoon.

Births Reported

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olmstead of Buena Park, Calif., former East Liverpool residents, a daughter, Feb. 14, at Martin Luther Hospital in Anaheim. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Olmstead, 829 Baxter St., and she is the former Nancy Wolfe.

With The Patients

Mrs. Robert Hoffman of Fair Oaks, formerly of Midland, is a patient in Sewickley Hospital.

Admitted to Salem City Hospital were Allen Zwick of Hammondsville and Arthur Brown III, Filmore Clark, Barbara Stark and Melody Tullis of Lisbon. Released were Mrs. John Mahoney of East Liverpool and Linda Burkey, Floyd Pierce, Mrs. Clayton Brown and Jacquelyn Judge of Lisbon.

Karol Rung of East Palestine is a patient at Salem Central Clinic.

Curt Ehlenbach of Salineville is a patient at Alliance City Hospital.

Carl Minor, 28, of Short St., Chester, is convalescing at City Hospital following a tonsillectomy Monday.

Floyd Pringle of Wellsville was admitted Tuesday at Rochester General Hospital. Himan Sigal of Midland and Walter Steff Jr. of Smiths Ferry were discharged.

Richard H. Jackson, 62, of 414 Elizabeth St., taken to City Hospital by police Friday after he became ill at home, was in "poor" condition today.

equipment can be rented from Ralph Villers of Steubenville for $36 a month, including maintenance.

Councilman Donald Hissam said he believes it would be better to rent the equipment. However, no action was taken.

Council authorized the expenditure of $130 for a correspondence course in police investigation for Chief Lennens and Patrolman Clarence Bebout.

Lennens, in requesting the course from the Institute of Applied Science, said it will include fingerprint work, handwriting identification, photography, firearms and other civil and criminal investigation methods.

Ruled City Property

Council stipulated that the textbooks are to be the property of the city.

Chief Lennens also requested a change in locks on the front office of the City Hall because of recent losses of items in the custody of the police department and cases of unauthorized use of the police radio equipment.

He suggested that the keys be kept by Mayor Harry Abrams and himself and others designated by them. Council authorized the mayor to arrange for changing the locks.

Asks Storage Space

Lennens also asked for storage space for items recovered by the police department. He said the law requires recovered stolen goods to be kept by police until the Grand Jury convenes, and often a large quantity of goods accumulates.

"Keeping these items in the city safe hinders other employes in the use of the safe," he said.

He said he has at present a truckload of tires which has to be stored under lock, and requested immediate action. Council authorized the use of a room in the City Hall basement.

Discussion was held on extra police and Council agreed it is the responsibility of the mayor and Lennens to determine when a special officer is to be on duty.

$2,996 Balance Listed

Hutton reported the water works current fund balance is $2,996.

Hutton, chairman of the water and sewer committee, said he had been advised by Mrs. Turner, solicitor, a hearing has not been scheduled by the West Virginia Public Service Commission on Chester's proposed flat water rate system.

He said Mrs. Turner told him she has to submit additional information on the plan, which would replace the present part meter, part flat rate system.

"If we can't get a flat rate, we will have to do something else," he said.

Discussion was held on delinquent water and sewer customers, but no action was taken. Hutton reported notices have been sent to them.

Cinder Supply Depleted

Councilman Carl Graham, street committee head, said the cinder supply of the city is depleted and the supply of the State Road Commission is also very small.

Kology said 2nd St. has not been cindered, and drains on the hillside are full of ice and snow. He said there are other places which have not been ashed.

Kology said a number of residents told him they believe the state crews should take care of Carolina Ave.

Graham said the street department has done "a marvelous job" of cindering. Kology replied the street workers do not get out early enough in the morning to cinder.

Chaney said he is "well pleased" with the cindering in his Fifth Ward.

Urges Unified Effort

Chaney said in an emergency all city and water works employes should work together, adding that the employes should know how to use the equipment.

Hissam said he believes the water works employes should know how to operate the grader for various work purposes.

Graham reported a truck of the Sugardale Meat Co. of Canton broke a manhole cover at Carolina Ave. and 3rd St. recently, and the firm will pay for a new cover.

Bills paid totaled $2,001. Cash-dollar listed receipts at $1,381.

State Police apprehended the men at a roadblock on Route 30, after being alerted for a 1956 station wagon. The vehicle had been seen by Boyd after the holdup at his station on Route 30 near the state line.

Almost simultaneously, North Fayette Township patrolmen halted a 1961 sedan at another roadblock. State Police said it was driven by Gladys Robinson, who was accompanied by Delores Bryant.

Sargus Offers Bill On Obscene Matter

COLUMBUS — A bill to tighten up provisions of a statute prohibiting distribution of obscene matter to minors was introduced in the General Assembly Tuesday afternoon by Sen. Edmund A. Sargus, D-St. Clairsville.

The bill would amend a section of the law governing exhibition of obscene movies to include any "obscene, indecent or impure" matter. It also would make it illegal to sell, distribute, print or publish any such matter for consumption by minors.

Penalty provisions of the section would be increased from a fine of not more than $1,000 and not more than 6 months in jail to a fine of from $200 to $2,000 and 1 to 7 years in prison.

ROLL STEEL? WITH THIS?

"Impossible," exclaims Frank Quinn, roller foreman in the 10-12-14" Mill of Midland works.

He is right, of course.

A rolling pin may be just the right tool for rolling cookies and pie crust, but it couldn't begin to roll steel. In fact, such a hand process would make our steel more costly than gold. It would be impossible for us to even compete in steel markets.

That's why it's important that we keep our production facilities as modern as possible. Only with efficient equipment can our employes produce steel to sell at a competitive price. The cost is high. In the last 10 years Crucible has invested nearly $90 million in improvements for Midland works alone.

Careers, Service Discussed For Camp Fire Horizon Club

Career exploration and community service were discussed at the first in a series of an office aide course sponsored for Horizon Club members by the East Liverpool Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., Saturday afternoon in the council offices on Broadway. About 14 attended.

Mrs. Dan Henderson, administrative secretary, conducted the study on basic office work which included qualifications for an office aide.

The group will study types of service available, assist with the upkeep and maintenance of the council library, take care of the council bulletin board and provide a clipping service for the office file.

They will assist with the issues of three newsletters per year, the quarterly inventory program supply, mimeographing and act as hostesses for the forthcoming open house.

Miss Roberta Pennybaker, executive secretary for George Shaw, business manager of The Review will be guest instructor at the next meeting Saturday morning at 10. She will speak on "Office Ethics and Etiquette."

Mrs. William Elder of Lagrange, Ind., volunteer member of the national field staff, conducted sessions Monday and Tuesday for all the levels of the program at the council offices.

Delegates from the Lisbon Camp Fire Girls Association were present at most of the sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fuhrer, tickets; Mrs. William Sutherland, candy sales; Charles Martin, game room; Mrs. John Russell, check room; Mrs. Joseph Thomas, cake walk; James Casey, soft drink stand; Keith Thomas and Sam Parkes, fish pond; Robert Skidmore, office, and Mrs. Sutherland, publicity.

6 Released On Bond For Aid In Escapes

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Six employes of Hawthornden State Hospital have been released on $200 bond after pleading innocent in Cuyahoga Falls Municipal Court to charges of inducing and assisting female inmates to escape from the mental hospital.

The six were arrested Tuesday as the result of an investigation started by the Ohio Highway Patrol last December after hospital authorities learned some women inmates were taken out "on dates" for periods ranging from a few hours to a week.

King, Queen To Get Crowns At South Side Mardi Gras

Crowning of a king and queen and selection of six prize-winning floats will highlight the annual Mardi Gras Saturday night at South Side Schools near Hookstown.

The Mardi Gras will be held in the high school following a smorgasbord dinner from 5 to 7:30 in the elementary school.

The Parent - Teacher Association is in charge of the smorgasbord with the Citizens Association handling arrangements for the Mardi Gras, whose theme will be "Storybook Land".

The king and queen will be crowned at 8 p. m. by Miss Sandy Hodgekins, 1962 queen. Gary and Jerry Early, twin first graders, will serve as crown bearer for the king and flower bearer for the queen with Susan Hayward as the crown bearer for the queen.

High school and elementary rooms will have floats in the Mardi Gras theme and will compete for first, second and third prizes in two divisions. The prizes will be $10, $8 and $5.

Judging the floats will be Mrs. Allie Dever, sixth grade teacher, and Mrs. Pearl Stolz, eighth grade teacher, both of Chester; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neeley of Hanover School and D. W. Fluke, guidance instructor at Western Beaver Schools.

Among the floats entered by the elementary rooms include "Three Men In a Tub," "Good Ship Lollipop," "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Old Woman In the Shoe" and "Sleeping Beauty." High school entries include "Ding Dong Bell," "Huckleberry Finn" and "Alice In Wonderland."

There also will be movies of all South Side school events, entertainment, booths and a dance.

Women of the PTA are planning the dinner.

13 Attend Meeting Of Lisbon First Christian Church Circle

The Phala Moore Circle of the First Christian Church at Lisbon met Monday night at the Morgan House, with 13 present.

Mrs. Nels Scheel, president, presided for business and plans were made to present a program at the Columbiana County Home the third Sunday every third month. Sale of cookbooks will continue through February.

"On the Rim of Asia," the new six-month study subject, was presented by Mrs. Willis Coleman, program leader, who used Hong Kong. A play, "Trouble Shooter," was given by Mrs. Harold Adams, Mrs. Harold Mattix, Mrs. Don Carman and Mrs. Gerald Carman.

A dedication service of sweaters to be sent to Hong Kong, through the Church World Service, was conducted by Mrs. Adams.

Mrs. George Berdine led devotions.

Hostess was Mrs. Jack Stockman.

The Monday Club was entertained by Mrs. Donald Lewis of E. Lincoln Way and 14 were present.

Mrs. Galen Bye and Mrs. Hoyt Sexton were welcomed as new members. Another new member, Mrs. David Borrow, was not present.

Mrs. George Lafferty, president, conducted business.

The life and writings of the late James Thurber, humorist and artist, were reviewed by Mrs. Charles Pike, program leader. A favorite cartoon was roll call response.

Miss Dorothy Cameron of Prospect St. will receive the club March 1 when "Magazines" will be the program subject. Mrs. Robert Leggett will be in charge. Roll call response will be a magazine advertisement.

The Victory Club met Monday evening with Mrs. Clarence Fife of Vine St. Mrs. Eleanor Hood of Mineral Ridge was a guest.

Prizes were awarded Mrs. John Chillik and Mrs. Victor Williams.

Mrs. Ross Carnes of N. Beaver St. will be hostess March 4.

Miss Kay Duke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Duke of E. Lincoln Way, a senior at Baldwin-Wallace College, will conduct the Junior High School band of Olmstead Falls at a "Parade of Bands" program today.

Miss Duke will also judge flutes at the Lorain County solo and ensemble contest Saturday. She is doing practice teaching at Olmstead Falls.

Presbytery Sets Aside Ordination Of Ohio Pastor

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Presbytery of Cincinnati has set aside the ordination of the Rev. Maurice F. McCrackin, a controversial pacifist who has served a prison sentence for refusing to pay income tax.

The presbytery's action Tuesday night apparently finished its long dispute with the 57-year-old clergyman. However, McCrackin still has a congregation — the Community Church of Cincinnati he formed last summer after the presbytery declared vacant his pulpit at the West Cincinnati-St. Barnabas Church.

That action came after the church's general assembly had upheld his earlier suspension for defying civil law by refusing to pay federal income taxes.

McCrackin contends no true Christian can pay income tax because part of it is used for warlike purposes. He was convicted in 1958 for failure to heed an Internal Revenue Service summons to discuss his taxes and was sentenced to six months in prison. He was released in 1959 and still refuses to pay income tax.

10 Youths Being Held In Mailboxes Case

LEBANON, Ohio (AP) — Ten Warren County youths are under house arrest while Juvenile Court decides how to punish them for knocking down dozens of rural mailboxes.

The terms of the house arrest are that they may not drive motor vehicles and must return home immediately after classes at Little Miami High School. The youths, ages 16 and 17, were rounded up Friday night and Monday morning.

Newsman Dies At 76

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Arthur Griffith, who came to Florida in 1929 from Lima, Ohio, as a reporter for the Fort Lauderdale News, died here Tuesday. The retired chief editorial writer for the Miami Herald was 76. He joined the Herald in 1930.

William S. Burroughs invented the adding machine.

Car Accident Fatal To 2 Claims 2 More

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) An automobile accident that took two lives Saturday night has claimed two more victims.

Linda Greiner, 15, of Hilliard and Dayton Karr Jr., 17, also of Hilliard, both died Tuesday in Mount Carmel Hospital.

They had been in critical condition since the mishap. The two who died in the crash were Norman F. Cornell, 16, of Amlin and Patty Ellis, 15, of Rt. 2, Palin City.

The accident occurred on Dublin Road in Franklin County just northwest of Columbus. Deputies said the car failed to make a curve and ran through some trees which ripped off the top of the vehicle.

For a flaming garnish for baked alaska, you can soak sugar cubes in flavoring extract and ignite them; but make sure your extract is at least 80 per cent alcohol or your flaming may not be successful.

Careers, Service Discussed For Camp Fire Horizon Club

Career exploration and community service were discussed at the first in a series of an office aide course sponsored for Horizon Club members by the East Liverpool Council of Camp Fire Girls, Inc., Saturday afternoon in the council offices on Broadway. About 14 attended.

Mrs. Dan Henderson, administrative secretary, conducted the study on basic office work which included qualifications for an office aide.

The group will study types of service available, assist with the upkeep and maintenance of the council library, take care of the council bulletin board and provide a clipping service for the office file.

They will assist with the issues of three newsletters per year, the quarterly inventory program supply, mimeographing and act as hostesses for the forthcoming open house.

Miss Roberta Pennybaker, executive secretary for George Shaw, business manager of The Review will be guest instructor at the next meeting Saturday morning at 10. She will speak on "Office Ethics and Etiquette."

Mrs. William Elder of Lagrange, Ind., volunteer member of the national field staff, conducted sessions Monday and Tuesday for all the levels of the program at the council offices.

Drivers Cited In 3 Crashes; Auto, Bus Hit

Three drivers were cited in traffic accidents Tuesday afternoon, in which one woman was injured slightly, police reported. The series of crashes included a collision between an auto and a halted school bus.

A tractor - trailer driver was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way after a collision between his rig and an auto at 3:08 p. m. at the River Rd. and State St., police said.

Norman A. Hoerig, 48, of Tiffin was cited following the collision between his car and a 1954 two-door sedan operated by Howard Touvelle, 57, of 1023 Hazel St., officers said.

Touvelle said he was driving west on the River Rd. when Hoerig pulled onto the thoroughfare from State St. without yielding the right-of-way. The crash damaged the front bumper of the tractor - trailer and the right rear of the auto, police said.

Mrs. Alma Touvelle, wife of the motorist, was treated at City Hospital three hours after the accident for a whiplash injury of the neck.

Hoerig posted a $32.50 bond for a Municipal Court hearing Thursday at 9 a. m.

Gary L. Hackathorne, 20, of Smith Dairy Rd. was cited following a collision between his 1954 two-door sedan and a 1959 auto operated by Donald S. Miller, 66, of 428 College St., officers said. The crash was timed at 4:22 p. m. at St. Clair Ave. and E. 9th St.

Police said Hackathorne was pulling from E. 9th to St. Clair and Miller was headed downgrade on St. Clair. The crash damaged the entire front end of Hackathorne's car and the right front fender, bumper and headlight of Miller's auto, police said.

Hackthorn, charged with failure to yield the right-of-way, was fined $10 and costs today by Judge Samuel Chertoff. Hackathorn pleaded not guilty.

The auto - school bus crash was timed at 3:41 p. m. at Smith St. and Lincoln Ave.

It involved a vehicle of the Snyder Bus Co., driven by Paul W. Owen, 57, of 311 Persimmon Alley and a 1958 model auto operated by Gordon L. Turner, 73, of 863 W. 8th St., police said.

The bus driver said he was driving north on Lincoln Ave. and turning west onto Smith St. He said he halted the bus when he saw the auto approaching on Smith St., then the car struck the bus, he said. There was damage to the left rear panel of the bus and the left front fender of the auto.

Two cars were damaged and one driver was cited in another mishap at 3:08 p. m. on Pennsylvania Ave. 100 feet east of Andrews St., police said.

The mishap involved a 1958 two-door sedan driven by Rudy Lazich, 60, of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1 and a 1960 four-door sedan operated by Franklin Matchett, 45, of 1128 St. Clair Ave., officers said.

Lazich was pulling from the parking lot of the Thorofare Market and Matchett was proceeding west on Pennsylvania Ave., officers said.

Matchett, charged with failure to yield the right-of-way, entered a not guilty plea this morning before Judge Chertoff. His hearing was set Thursday morning.

Valentine Party Held For Irondale Classes

Mrs. Charles Sayre held a valentine party Saturday night at the Irondale Presbyterian Church for the Junior and Primary Classes.

Games were featured and lunch was served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Hannah Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penrod of Akron and Mrs. Ralph Rowan and Mrs. Margaret Penrod of Navarre visited Monday with Mrs. Eddith Smathers.

Masonic Party Slated

SALINEVILLE — The annual George Washington birthday party of Masonic Lodge 348 and Betsy Ross Chapter, Eastern Star, will be held Friday night at 8 at the Masonic Temple for members and families. Eugene Jarvis is lodge master, and George Goppert and Mrs. Sue Cunningham are chapter patron and matron.

60 At Calcutta PTA Session

Clayton Aughinbaugh was elected representative to the Citizens Scholarship Foundation organization at a meeting of the Calcutta Parent-Teacher Association Monday night at the Calcutta School. About 60 attended.

Joe Coons of the Jaycees spoke on plans for the formation of the scholarship group. He was introduced by Mrs. Ruth Green, program chairman.

The purchase of a sliding board for the school playground was authorized in co-operation with the Mothers Club.

Discussion was held on the recently introduced continuous progress and team teaching program in first grade. Taking part were Theodore Taylor, principal; Urban Petros, elementary supervisor, and Mrs. Helen Ward, Mrs. Eleanor Rice and Mrs. Ann Kirkbride, teachers.

The attendance award was won by Mrs. Ward's first grade. The fourth grade mothers served refreshments. Robert Veness, president, was in charge.

Absenteeism At High In Hancock Schools

Absenteeism in the Hancock County school system probably reached a record high Monday and showed only a slight decrease Tuesday, the office of Supt. Robert H. Hall reported today.

There were 1,063 pupils missing from classes Monday due to colds, flu and other winter diseases, while 1,060 were absent Tuesday.

There are about 8,400 students in the system at buildings in Chester, Newell, New Cumberland, Pughtown and Weirton.

2 Motorists Fined

LISBON — Two motorists were fined Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald after they were cited by the State Highway Patrol. John W. Carman, 35, of Salineville was fined $5 and costs for failure to stop within the assured clear distance and Kenneth L. Hoschar, 27, of Hammondsville $5 and costs for driving left of center.

For Washington's Birthday

Banks, Public Offices, Some Schools To Shut

City banks, several financial institutions and most public agencies will be closed Friday for Washington's birthday with some district schools also observing the holiday.

Municipal Court will be closed, although all other City Hall offices will function. Fees will be required in parking meters.

St. Aloysius Parochial School will be closed. Students in Midland public schools will have no classes but teachers will have an in-service training day. Public schools and the Immaculate Conception Parochial School in Wellsville also will be closed.

Post Offices will follow a regular holiday schedule with no deliveries or window service.

The Ohio State Employment Service office will be closed Friday with claimants reporting on Thursday. The Social Security Administration office also will be closed.

Observing the holiday will be the First National Bank, Potters Bank & Trust Co., Central Federal Savings & Loan Association and Perpetual Savings & Loan Co.

State liquor stores in East Liverpool, Midland and Wellsville also will be closed.

The West Virginia State Liquor Store at Chester will be closed as will the City Hall office of the Chester Water Department.

Borough offices in Midland also will observe the holiday.

Carnegie Public Libraries here and at Wellsville will observe the holiday.

The Columbiana County Courthouse at Lisbon will be closed.

Also closed will be all the schools in the Columbiana County system — Beaver Local, Southern Local, Fairfield - Waterford and United.

Classes will be suspended at Lisbon, Leetonia, Columbiana and East Palestine because of a teachers workshop to be held Friday at Columbiana for those districts.

The Hancock County Courthouse in New Cumberland will be closed all day Friday.

Delicious topping for ice cream: mix together brown sugar, melted butter and flaked coconut; toast lightly in a moderate oven for about five minutes. Spread the coconut mixture evenly on a sheet of heavy foil or over the bottom of a shallow pan before toasting.

Kuzma Guides Midland To Section 8 Crown

By ANDY NUZZO

The Midland Leopards repeated as Section 8 champs Tuesday night when they turned back a scrappy Riverside Panther five, 66-50 before a highly - partisan crowd at Riverside.

It was the second consecutive section crown won by the Leopards under Hank Kuzma and their 11th in 15 years of Class "A" competition.

—:—

ON FRIDAY night the Leopards will close their regular schedule when they take on the unpredictable Monaca Indians before venturing into the WPIAL play-offs at the Pitt Field House next week.

Midland now stands 12-1 in section play and 19-2 on the season.

John Novalesi's Panthers suffered their ninth loss in 13 section contests.

It was the combination of a balanced scoring attack and the outstanding play of senior Gary Perkins in the last quarter that provided the Leopards their title-clinching victory.

—:—

BILL SALLIS, as he has done so many times this year, led the Leopards with 14 points and 13 rebounds. The 6-2 senior ripped the cords on six fielders and two of three free throws. Twelve of his points were scored in the second period.

In the second period Sallis picked up his third personal foul of the night and was forced to the bench with 1:11 remaining. He did not return to action until the 3:47 mark of the third period.

SOPHOMORE Sim Hill and junior Rod Alston finished with 11 points apiece. Hill scored five points in the latter part of the final quarter. He also chipped in with 10 rebounds.

Perkins tossed in two fielders and five of 11 free throws for nine points. All of these points came in the fourth period.

The Leopards had a sour night at the charity stripe. They missed 21 free throws, mostly in two-shot or one-and-one situations.

THE PANTHERS were led by juniors George Yovich and Russ Clyde and senior Frank Dec Yovich netted six field goals for 12 points and led the Panthers in the rebounding department with eight. He played a fine floor game.

Clyde, who entered the game in the last few minutes of the third quarter, finished the night with nine points. He meshed two fielders and five of seven free charity tosses. Eight of his markers came in the final period.

Leopards Down Riverside, Gain WPIAL Playoff

Dec whipped in three field goals and two of four free throws for eight markers.

THE LEOPARDS had a tremendous shooting percentage. They canned 25 of 53 shots for 47 per cent. Riverside dropped in 18 of 60 for 30 per cent.

The Leopards held the lead throughout the game. They managed a 30-18 lead after the first two periods terminated.

In the third period Riverside cut the Midland lead to 10 points, 44-34, and in the final quarter pulled within four points of the Leopards.

Midland led, 49-39, with some seven minutes left in the game when the Panthers went on the prowl.

George Kotuby started the rally by swishing a charity toss. Clyde, Dec and Yovich followed with successfive fielders that chopped the Leopards lead to 49-45, with 4:55 remaining.

—:—

PERKINS then sparked Midland to an eight-point spree that gave the Leopards a 58-45 advantage with a little more than three minutes left.

Perkins and Hill accounted for the remainder of the Leopard points as Midland steadily pulled away to victory.

Norman Vanlier of Midland and Cliff Herron of Riverside were ejected from the game with 1:47 remaining in the third quarter. The two had a slight difference of opinion at mid-court. The loss of playmaker Vanlier slowed the Midland offense down somewhat.

A one-half court press enabled the Midland reserves to defeat the Riverside Jayvees, 47-35. Ray Oliver, with 18 points, and Mike Krivoshia, with 11, led Ed Olkowski's winners.

Bill Lennox's Riverside subs were sparked by the nine-point performance of Bob Belsick.

Cumberland Nips Chester, 52-46

Raiders Close With 14-6

NEW CUMBERLAND — Finishing strong, New Cumberland broke a late tie to come out on top, 52-46, over Chester here Tuesday night.

A determined Chester team, which trailed 40-34 going into the fourth period, bounced back to knot the count at 43-43 with 2:12 remaining in the game but lost it in the closing minutes.

The contest was the final one for New Cumberland and leaves the Raiders with a 14-6 mark. Chester holds a 6-10 record.

Coach John Kuzio's team, after trailing through most of the first period, took a 19-12 lead at the end of the opening quarter and was on top 33-26 at halftime.

New Cumberland's biggest lead last night reached nine points.

Gary Mayhew scored from the field to tie the count at 43-43 but Freshwater's fielder put New Cumberland in front, 46-44 with 1:16 left in the game. Dennis Carnes followed with a fielder and Freshwater added a pair of fouls to put the count to 50-44 and ice the contest for the Blue Raiders.

Freshwater's 19 points, and a 17-point effort by Carnes paced New Cumberland. Kelse Johnson flipped in 12 points and Bob Myers 10 to lead Chester.

In a thrilling preliminary game, Chester's reserve forces nipped New Cumberland, 59-57, in three overtimes.

South Siders Nipped In Last Seconds

For the second time this season, Burgettstown nipped South Side by a two-point margin. Tuesday night at South Side, with the score knotted at 32-32, Reggie Carr dropped in a field goal with two seconds remaining to give Burgettstown a 34-32 win.

The previous meeting between the two schools ended, 45-43.

Coach Dave Nichol's Rams, in dropping their 16th game in 20 starts, led up until the closing minute. South Side took a 9-8 first period lead, was on top 21-17 at halftime and 29-28 after three periods.

The basket by Carr was his only field goal of the game.

South Side even showed a 15-13 edge in field goals but only converted two fouls while Burgettstown scored eight times from the foul line.

Berry Alvarez led the winners with 14 points while Dawson Frasier tallied 13 for South Side.

Burgettstown won the reserve contest, 50-33.

37 Horses Die In Blaze At Jim Edwards' Farm

Thirty-seven thoroughbred race horses, most of them yearlings and 2-year-olds, were destroyed Tuesday night as fire whipped through the main barn of the plush Audley Farm at Berryville, Va. which is owned by James F. Edwards, owner and president of Waterford Park and Wheeling Downs.

It was the second major fire to Edwards' property in three months. In December, Wheeling Downs was destroyed by fire.

There was no estimate on the worth of the horses, but the barn was valued at between $100,000 and $200,000 Cause of the blaze was not known.

Grayson A. Greer, 15, son of the manager of the farm saved 11 of the 48 thoroughbreds in the 52-stall barn.

With the north end ablaze, he ran to the south end of the 100-yard long building and led several horses out to safety. Some of them panicked and raced back to their death.

Fullmer, Tiger Stage Final Drills For Bout

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Middleweight champion Dick Tiger switched to a blistering body attack Tuesday as he increased his training total to 89 rounds for Saturday night's title fight with Gene Fullmer.

The Nigerian titleholder went two rounds with lanky Al Swiderski, a Las Vegas middleweight, and three rounds with Willie Turner, Fresno, Calif.

Tiger, clad in heavy sweatclothes, said he will make the 160-pound limit without difficulty.

"I may even come in a little under," the champion remarked.

The challenger, Fullmer, lacked the luster he showed in Monday's workout when he floored sparring mate, Ed Hickman of Los Angales.

Fullmer concentrated on left jabs and combinationas as he sparred four rounds with Salt Lake City middleweight, Milo Savage. The West Jordan, Utah, boxer has sparred 97 rounds to date and now weighs 162.

Both fighters wind up sparring Wednesday but will loosen up Thursday.

The odds remain 3-1 in favor of the champion.

Westgate, East Open Tourney Action At Salem

The Eighth Grade teams of East Junior High and Westgate open tournament play today at Salem.

East was scheduled to meet the Salem "B" team at 3:30 while Westgate meets the Columbiana "B" team at 4:30.

If Westgate wins, the Wildcats play again Thursday while East would play again Friday at 5 p. m.

Ten teams are entered in the tourney and trophies will be awarded following the finals Saturday night. A consolation game will be Saturday at 6:30 with the championship contest at 7:30.

Astronauts To Appear At Beaver Local

A local faculty team will attempt to bring the Harlem Astronauts out of orbit when they meet Thursday at 8 p. m. at Beaver Local High School in a game sponsored by the Beaver Local Athletic Association.

Tickets are $1 for adults and 75 cents for students and are on sale at Heimies' in East Liverpool and Morgan Drugs in Lisbon.

Members of the faculty from district high schools include Frank Chan, Jim Harris and Jim Potts of East Liverpool; Tom McCall, Flody Suarez, John Pape, Jack O'Rourke, Lloyd Stockdale, Frank Wilson and Calvin Graber of Beaver Local; Lynn Batcha and Paul Frank of Leetonia; Jack McDevitt, Chuck McMillan and Bevo Francis of Wellsville and Gary Pike of Lisbon.

The New York Harlem Astronauts, who play anything from college all-star groups to faculty teams, are currently unbeaten.

The lineup is featured by Billy Barnes, 6-7, a former Little All-American from Florida A & M; Henry Marshall, a standout at North Carolina A. & T. who recently tried out with the New York "Knicks" of the NBA; jumping Jim Stanley, who was leading scorer for the Harlem Satellites, the past two seasons; Herb Gray, 6-7, traveled with the Harlem "Diplomats" last season and was top scorer and Emerson Baynard, 6-5 flash from John Hancock College in California, who was an all-Pennsylvania selection at Chester (Pa.) High School.

The "Flying Astronauts" will perform in a pre-game show in complete darkness.

Beaver Public Matmen To Meet Carrollton

Beaver Public's Junior High wrestling team will meet Carrollton Thursday at 6 p. m. on the Carrollton mats.

Pitt-Penn State Winner May Receive NCAA Berth

NEW YORK (AP)—Notre Dame with a 15-6 record, became the ninth team named to an at-large berth in the National Collegiate Athletic Association basketball championships today.

The NCAA Service Bureau said the Irish would play their first round game against the still to be determined Mid-American Conference champion in the opener of a Mideast regional doubleheader at Evanston, Ill., on March 11.

Pairings for each of the regionals were announced as well, including the designation of third-ranked Chicago Loyola to play the Ohio Valley Conference champion in the nightcap of the Evanston doubleheader.

Monday, the NCAA had named Chicago Loyola, New York University, Texas Western, Colorado State U., Oklahoma City U., Utah State, Seattle and Oregon State to at-large berths.

With nine at-large berths filled, the NCAA needs two more teams to complete its 25-team championship field. One of the at-large berths will go to the Ivy League champion. The other reportedly is reserved for the winner of the Pitt-Penn State game Saturday.

The 14 other spots in the NCAA field go automatically to the champions of the major conferences across the country.

In first round pairings, the NCAA announced this line-up:

Eastern regional—

New York U. vs. an at-large team to be named, the Southern Conference champion vs. the Yankee Conference champion, and the Middle Atlantic Conference champ vs. the Ivy League king in a March 11 tripleheader at Philadelphia. The winners join the Atlantic Coast Conference champion in the Eastern semifinals and finals at College Park, Md., March 15-16. The winner of the NYU game will play the ACC champion, with the other two survivors at Philadelphia matched against each other.

Mideastern regional — Notre Dame vs. Mid-American Conference champion and Chicago Loyola vs. Ohio Valley Conference champion at Evanston March 11. The two winners join the Big Ten champion and the Southeastern Conference champion or representative in the Mideastern semifinals and finals at East Lansing, Mich., March 15-16, with the Notre Dame-Mid-American survivor facing the Big Ten, and the Loyola-Ohio Valley survivor playing the SEC team.

Midwest regional — Colorado State U. vs Oklahoma City and Texas Western vs. Southwest Conference champion in a doubleheader March 9 at Lubbock, Tex. The winners join the Missouri Valley Conference champion and the Big Eight Conference champion in Midwest semifinals and finals at Lawrence, Kan., March 15-16. The Missouri Valley champ, probably two-time NCAA champion Cincinnati, will play the Southwest-Texas Western survivor, the Big Eight champ the Colorado State-Oklahoma City survivor.

Western regional — Utah State vs. Western Athletic Conference champion and Seattle vs. Oregon State in doubleheader at Eugene, Ore., March 11. Utah State-WAC winner plays the Big Six conference champion and Seattle-Oregon State winner plays the West Coast Athletic Conference champion in Western semifinals and finals at Provo, Utah, March 15-16.

The four regional survivors move on to Louisville for the national semifinals and finals at Freedom Hall on March 22-23.

Army football coach Paul Dietzel compiled a record of 45 victories against 24 defeats and 3 ties at Louisiana State University.

Kuzma Guides Midland To Section 8 Crown

By ANDY NUZZO

The Midland Leopards repeated as Section 8 champs Tuesday night when they turned back a scrappy Riverside Panther five, 66-50 before a highly - partisan crowd at Riverside.

It was the second consecutive section crown won by the Leopards under Hank Kuzma and their 11th in 15 years of Class "A" competition.

—:—

ON FRIDAY night the Leopards will close their regular schedule when they take on the unpredictable Monaca Indians before venturing into the WPIAL play-offs at the Pitt Field House next week.

Midland now stands 12-1 in section play and 19-2 on the season.

John Novalesi's Panthers suffered their ninth loss in 13 section contests.

It was the combination of a balanced scoring attack and the outstanding play of senior Gary Perkins in the last quarter that provided the Leopards their title-clinching victory.

—:—

BILL SALLIS, as he has done so many times this year, led the Leopards with 14 points and 13 rebounds. The 6-2 senior ripped the cords on six fielders and two of three free throws. Twelve of his points were scored in the second period.

In the second period Sallis picked up his third personal foul of the night and was forced to the bench with 1:11 remaining. He did not return to action until the 3:47 mark of the third period.

SOPHOMORE Sim Hill and junior Rod Alston finished with 11 points apiece. Hill scored five points in the latter part of the final quarter. He also chipped in with 10 rebounds.

Perkins tossed in two fielders and five of 11 free throws for nine points. All of these points came in the fourth period.

The Leopards had a sour night at the charity stripe. They missed 21 free throws, mostly in two-shot or one-and-one situations.

THE PANTHERS were led by juniors George Yovich and Russ Clyde and senior Frank Dec Yovich netted six field goals for 12 points and led the Panthers in the rebounding department with eight. He played a fine floor game.

Clyde, who entered the game in the last few minutes of the third quarter, finished the night with nine points. He meshed two fielders and five of seven free charity tosses. Eight of his markers came in the final period.

Dec whipped in three field goals and two of four free throws for eight markers.

THE LEOPARDS had a tremendous shooting percentage. They canned 25 of 53 shots for 47 per cent. Riverside dropped in 18 of 60 for 30 per cent.

The Leopards held the lead throughout the game. They managed a 30-18 lead after the first two periods terminated.

In the third period Riverside cut the Midland lead to 10 points, 44-34, and in the final quarter pulled within four points of the Leopards.

Midland led, 49-39, with some seven minutes left in the game when the Panthers went on the prowl.

George Kotuby started the rally by swishing a charity toss. Clyde, Dec and Yovich followed with successfive fielders that chopped the Leopards lead to 49-45, with 4:55 remaining.

—:—

PERKINS then sparked Midland to an eight-point spree that gave the Leopards a 58-45 advantage with a little more than three minutes left.

Perkins and Hill accounted for the remainder of the Leopard points as Midland steadily pulled away to victory.

Norman Vanlier of Midland and Cliff Herron of Riverside were ejected from the game with 1:47 remaining in the third quarter. The two had a slight difference of opinion at mid-court. The loss of playmaker Vanlier slowed the Midland offense down somewhat.

A one-half court press enabled the Midland reserves to defeat the Riverside Jayvees, 47-35. Ray Oliver, with 18 points, and Mike Krivoshia, with 11, led Ed Olkowski's winners.

Bill Lennox's Riverside subs were sparked by the nine-point performance of Bob Belsick.

Monday, the NCAA had named Chicago Loyola, New York University, Texas Western, Colorado State U., Oklahoma City U., Utah State, Seattle and Oregon State to at-large berths.

With nine at-large berths filled, the NCAA needs two more teams to complete its 25-team championship field. One of the at-large berths will go to the Ivy League champion. The other reportedly is reserved for the winner of the Pitt-Penn State game Saturday.

The 14 other spots in the NCAA field go automatically to the champions of the major conferences across the country.

In first round pairings, the NCAA announced this line-up:

Eastern regional—

New York U. vs. an at-large team to be named, the Southern Conference champion vs. the Yankee Conference champion, and the Middle Atlantic Conference champ vs. the Ivy League king in a March 11 tripleheader at Philadelphia. The winners join the Atlantic Coast Conference champion in the Eastern semifinals and finals at College Park, Md., March 15-16. The winner of the NYU game will play the ACC champion, with the other two survivors at Philadelphia matched against each other.

Mideastern regional — Notre Dame vs. Mid-American Conference champion and Chicago Loyola vs. Ohio Valley Conference champion at Evanston March 11. The two winners join the Big Ten champion and the Southeastern Conference champion or representative in the Mideastern semifinals and finals at East Lansing, Mich., March 15-16, with the Notre Dame-Mid-American survivor facing the Big Ten, and the Loyola-Ohio Valley survivor playing the SEC team.

Midwest regional — Colorado State U. vs Oklahoma City and Texas Western vs. Southwest Conference champion in a doubleheader March 9 at Lubbock, Tex. The winners join the Missouri Valley Conference champion and the Big Eight Conference champion in Midwest semifinals and finals at Lawrence, Kan., March 15-16. The Missouri Valley champ, probably two-time NCAA champion Cincinnati, will play the Southwest-Texas Western survivor, the Big Eight champ the Colorado State-Oklahoma City survivor.

Western regional — Utah State vs. Western Athletic Conference champion and Seattle vs. Oregon State in doubleheader at Eugene, Ore., March 11. Utah State-WAC winner plays the Big Six conference champion and Seattle-Oregon State winner plays the West Coast Athletic Conference champion in Western semifinals and finals at Provo, Utah, March 15-16.

The four regional survivors move on to Louisville for the national semifinals and finals at Freedom Hall on March 22-23.

FIELD AND STREAM

By R. L. LIDE

Fifty-two beavers were taken by trapping in Columbiana County last year.

It looks like things are going to be different this year. No one has shown up with a beaver to be tagged and the season was three days old when this was written.

The weather has everything to do with it. All lakes, ponds and streams are frozen over. The ice is a foot thick on ponds constructed by the beavers and our trappers do not have the know-how of the trappers in the frozen northlands.

THE SURPLUS crop of beavers should be removed each year, to my way of thinking. We have enough beavers in this county as it is and if some of them are not removed then complaints will multiply next year.

It is better to take the beavers when they have some value than have them destroyed when doing actual damage during the spring and summer.

The prolonged snow on the ground, plus extremely cold weather, is made to order for predacious birds and animals. Pheasants may be particularly hard hit as they are forced into the open more so than other game.

They have to dig below the snow in a picked over cornfield, seeking some of the grain missed by the corn pickers. Being so prominent in size and color, a hawk, owl, fox or any kind of predator can spot them a mile away.

RUDY DROTLEFF, a farmer in Butler Township, has been feeding numerous pheasants ear corn near a small pine plantation.

The pheasants could be seen regularly during the daytime, picking away at the grain. One fox put in his appearance and the birds disappeared. That does not mean the fox killed all of them, but it does mean the pheasants have moved to more secure quarters.

It also means that the predators are on the prowl both day and night. Survival of the fittest has been the way of wildlife since the beginning of time.

You may have established a spot to feed pheasants, quail or what have you, but the predators are hungry, too, so they kill and eat anything available.

That is one reason for not concentrating the feeding stations in just one spot. Spread it out in as many places as possible. I'm afraid this winter weather may take a bigger toll in wildlife than any one knows.

At April 2 Sports Banquet

Middies' Miller, Hardin To Speak At Columbiana

E. E. (Rip) Miller, director of athletics and head football coach Wayne Hardin of the U. S. Naval Academy will be guest speakers for the second annual Sports Appreciation Banquet honoring Columbiana High athletes April 2 at the South Side School.

The event which drew over 500 last year to hear Fred Taylor, Ohio State basketball coach, talk is being sponsored by the Columbiana Boosters Club and the speakers were obtained by Don R. Gosney, banquet chairman.

The featured speaker "Rip" Miller was one of the "seven mules" that opened the holes for the famous "Four Horsemen" of the Knute Rockne-coached Notre Dame champions of 1924.

Miller was the line coach at University of Indiana in 1926, and moved to the Naval Academy as assistant coach. From 1931-34 he was head coach but returned to line coach when Navy reverted to the graduate system.

Miller coached several All-American linemen during his tenure as line coach, and during World War II was on active duty in the Naval Reserve as a commander.

In 1948, after 22 years' service at the Academy, he moved up to the post of assistant director of athletics, and recently became director. In 1958, he was presented the award for "outstanding service, loyalty and devotion to the United States Naval Academy" by the Naval Academy Association of New York.

Hardin, who has posted the enviable record of never losing to Army in his four years as coach of the middies. Hardins career is filled with success on the athletic field, both as player and coach. At Stockton High School in California he was a standout in football, basketball and track in the early 40's.

In World War II he was in the Coast Guard, and saw duty in the Aleutians. Hardin entered College of the Pacific after the war and earned more varsity letters (11) than any athlete in the school's history.

After graduation in 1948 he stayed on at his alma mater as an assistant coach before moving to Ceres, Calif. High School. He led Ceres two league championships.

In 1952 he returned to College of the Pacific as backfield coach, and the next season moved to the head position at Porterville, Calif., Junior College.

Hardin came to the Naval Academy in 1955 as defensive backfield coach, leading Navy to the second spot in the nation in pass defense. He spent the next three years as offensive back coach and was elevated to the head post in 1959.

Ralph Goist is chairman of the Advertising Committee, Coach Berryman and Coach George Fisher are in charge of the program. Kenneth Brower, phone IV 2-2014, is chairman of the ticket committee. Anyone interested in tickets may contact Brower.

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—Candy Spots was still unbeaten today after four starts and remains one of the nation's top 3-year-old Derby hopes.

But it took a tremendous effort by the big California colt in his debut as a 3-year-old at Santa Anita Tuesday, and a long, long look at the photo-finish film by the stewards, to separate Candy Spots from the highly regarded Bonjour.

Owner-breeder Rex C. Ellsworth and his trainer, Mesh Tenney, were satisfied with Candy Spots' performance in his first race since a rich victory last September in the Arlington-Washington Futurity at Chicago.

Tenney, admittedly has a problem getting Candy Spots ready for the 1 1-8-mile $100,000-added Santa Anita Derby March 2. Too little time remains for a long run on the race track.

Tuesday's race, the Laguna Beach Purse, was raced at six furlongs. The time was 1:10 flat on a fast track.

The stable has had difficulties getting Candy Spots back to the races. One race didn't attract enough horses. Then jockey Bill Shoemaker lost five days via a suspension for a riding infraction. A rainstorm washed out another attempt last week.

Sanford, Giants Are 'Far Apart'

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Burly Jack Sanford, 24-game winner for the National League champion San Francisco Giants, revealed today that he had pitched the final week of the 1962 baseball season with a 2-inch cut in his heel from an operation to remove an abscess.

Currently involved in a contract cold war with the Giants, Sanford put a couple of hot coals into the dispute Tuesday when he told the San Francisco Chronicle of his operation and implied that the Giants' pitching pattern was being used as a weapon against a hefty raise.

"Few people know this," said Sanford from his Duxbury, Mass., home, "but just before I beat St. Louis 4-2 in the final week I had an operation on my heel to remove an abscess. A 2-inch long cut. It hurt. Toward the end I also worked with a cold that drained me. But I worked something like three games in six days."

The fastballing right-hander, who won 16 consecutive games at one stretch as the Giants made their run at the front-running Los Angeles Dodgers, then fired a verbal broadside.

"Chub (Giants Vice President Chub Feeney) mentioned I didn't complete many games last year. Thirteen. But that was the ordered pattern. Pitch as hard as I can as long as I can and then let the bullpen clean up."

Sanford's asking price for the 1963 campaign is believed to be in the neighborhood of $35,000, a boost of about $10,000. Sanford says he and the Giants are "far apart," which is taken to mean about $5,000.

While Sanford was jolting the Giants, the Cincinnati Reds, who finished third last year, received a shock from a different direction when they were notified that outfielder Vada Pinson had undergone an appendix operation and would miss the spring training period.

Several players, meanwhile, signed Tuesday. Catcher Elston Howard and pitcher Bill Stafford came to terms with the Yankees, pitcher Billy O'Dell with the Giants and pitcher Lew Burdette with Milwaukee.

Howard, who also plays in the outfield and at first base as needed, reportedly signed for $45,000 and Stafford for an estimated $22,000. No figure was given for O'Dell, but the 36-year-old Burdette, who slumped to a 10-9 mark with the Braves last year, agreed to terms reportedly calling for $40,000.

Duke Beats Maryland, Eyes Perfect Loop Mark

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Duke Blue Devils, boasting the nation's longest winning string in major college basketball ranks, have a special incentive going for them. They're hoping to emulate the feat of North Carolina's national champions in 1956-57.

Second-ranked Duke turned back Maryland 76-70 at College Park, Md., Tuesday night and kept its streak in tact. The victory was the Blue Devils' 14th straight and gave them a perfect 13-0 Atlantic Coast Conference record with one regular season league game remaining.

The Dixie Dandies, whose overall mark is 20-2, have just one league game left before heading into the sudden-death ACC tournament in Raleigh, starting Feb. 28.

A victory over North Carolina at home Saturday night would leave Duke with a 14-0 league record. In nine previous ACC seasons, only one team has gone through without losing, North Carolina in 1956-57.

No other members of the Top Ten were scheduled Tuesday night but a number of key conference games were played.

Kansas State climbed into a tie for first place with idle Oklahoma State in the Big Eight Conference with 7-2 league records. The Wildcats topped Kansas 67-54 at Lawrence as little Max Moss scored 18 points.

Host Texas boosted its league-leading Southwest Conference record to 10-0 and its over-all mark to 15-5 in knocking Texas A&M out of a share of second place, 83-73. The Aggies dropped to third at 6-4 as Rice moved into the runner-up spot at 7-3 with a 74-70 verdict at home over Baylor.

Georgia Tech whipped Tennessee 72-60 at Knoxville for its 19th victory in 23 starts and kept its Southeastern Conference title hopes alive.

Elsewhere: Southern Methodist outlasted Texas Christian 109-98, Arkansas subdued Texas Tech 83-78, Drake took a 65-65 squeaker over North Texas, William and Mary turned back George Washington 79-75, South Carolina upended Clemson 51-45, DePaul crushed Gannon 83-48, Fordham posted a 78-66 verdict over CCNY, Villanova outclassed Buffalo 69-47, Miami of Ohio vanquished Marshall 66-59, Southern Illinois stunned Western Kentucky 95-73 and St. Mary's, Calif., defeated Santa Clara 81-76.

Leaders Beaten In Member Loop

Don Hildebrand's handed Roberts its first defeat, 50-45, in the YMCA-Member League Tuesday night, to tighten up the standings.

Ken Lane sparked the winners with 17 points while Jim Eckstein fired in 18 markers for Roberts.

Mathias' five handed Ron Hildebrand's a 60-48 setback with Jerry Murawski's 21 points pacing the winners. Mark Wilson tallied 16 in a losing effort.

McElhaney's turned back George's, 45-38 as Gary Weekley hit the hoops for 22 points. Bill Gabbert topped George's with 13.

8 Indians Unsigned As Spring Drills Near

CLEVELAND (AP) — Eight players on the Cleveland Indians' roster remained unsigned today as the Tribe prepared to open its spring training camp in Tucson, Ariz., Thursday.

They are outfielders Chuck Essegian, Tito Francona and Willie Tasby and pitchers Bob Allen, Gary Bell, Barry Latman, Jim Perry and Sonny Siebert.

Seven players returned their signed contracts Tuesday, bringing to 35 the number under contract for the 1963 season.

Contracts were received from infielders Larry Brown and Hector Cardenas, outfielders Al Luplow, Ty Cline and Lee Green, and pitchers Bill Dailey and Joe Schaffernoth.

The featured speaker "Rip" Miller was one of the "seven mules" that opened the holes for the famous "Four Horsemen" of the Knute Rockne-coached Notre Dame champions of 1924.

Miller was the line coach at University of Indiana in 1926, and moved to the Naval Academy as assistant coach. From 1931-34 he was head coach but returned to line coach when Navy reverted to the graduate system.

Miller coached several All-American linemen during his tenure as line coach, and during World War II was on active duty in the Naval Reserve as a commander.

In 1948, after 22 years' service at the Academy, he moved up to the post of assistant director of athletics, and recently became director. In 1958, he was presented the award for "outstanding service, loyalty and devotion to the United States Naval Academy" by the Naval Academy Association of New York.

Hardin, who has posted the enviable record of never losing to Army in his four years as coach of the middies. Hardins career is filled with success on the athletic field, both as player and coach. At Stockton High School in California he was a standout in football, basketball and track in the early 40's.

In World War II he was in the Coast Guard, and saw duty in the Aleutians. Hardin entered College of the Pacific after the war and earned more varsity letters (11) than any athlete in the school's history.

After graduation in 1948 he stayed on at his alma mater as an assistant coach before moving to Ceres, Calif. High School. He led Ceres two league championships.

In 1952 he returned to College of the Pacific as backfield coach, and the next season moved to the head position at Porterville, Calif., Junior College.

Hardin came to the Naval Academy in 1955 as defensive backfield coach, leading Navy to the second spot in the nation in pass defense. He spent the next three years as offensive back coach and was elevated to the head post in 1959.

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—Candy Spots was still unbeaten today after four starts and remains one of the nation's top 3-year-old Derby hopes.

But it took a tremendous effort by the big California colt in his debut as a 3-year-old at Santa Anita Tuesday, and a long, long look at the photo-finish film by the stewards, to separate Candy Spots from the highly regarded Bonjour.

Owner-breeder Rex C. Ellsworth and his trainer, Mesh Tenney, were satisfied with Candy Spots' performance in his first race since a rich victory last September in the Arlington-Washington Futurity at Chicago.

Tenney, admittedly has a problem getting Candy Spots ready for the 1 1-8-mile $100,000-added Santa Anita Derby March 2. Too little time remains for a long run on the race track.

Tuesday's race, the Laguna Beach Purse, was raced at six furlongs. The time was 1:10 flat on a fast track.

The stable has had difficulties getting Candy Spots back to the races. One race didn't attract enough horses. Then jockey Bill Shoemaker lost five days via a suspension for a riding infraction. A rainstorm washed out another attempt last week.

Sanford, Giants Are 'Far Apart'

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Burly Jack Sanford, 24-game winner for the National League champion San Francisco Giants, revealed today that he had pitched the final week of the 1962 baseball season with a 2-inch cut in his heel from an operation to remove an abscess.

Currently involved in a contract cold war with the Giants, Sanford put a couple of hot coals into the dispute Tuesday when he told the San Francisco Chronicle of his operation and implied that the Giants' pitching pattern was being used as a weapon against a hefty raise.

"Few people know this," said Sanford from his Duxbury, Mass., home, "but just before I beat St. Louis 4-2 in the final week I had an operation on my heel to remove an abscess. A 2-inch long cut. It hurt. Toward the end I also worked with a cold that drained me. But I worked something like three games in six days."

The fastballing right-hander, who won 16 consecutive games at one stretch as the Giants made their run at the front-running Los Angeles Dodgers, then fired a verbal broadside.

"Chub (Giants Vice President Chub Feeney) mentioned I didn't complete many games last year. Thirteen. But that was the ordered pattern. Pitch as hard as I can as long as I can and then let the bullpen clean up."

Sanford's asking price for the 1963 campaign is believed to be in the neighborhood of $35,000, a boost of about $10,000. Sanford says he and the Giants are "far apart," which is taken to mean about $5,000.

While Sanford was jolting the Giants, the Cincinnati Reds, who finished third last year, received a shock from a different direction when they were notified that outfielder Vada Pinson had undergone an appendix operation and would miss the spring training period.

Several players, meanwhile, signed Tuesday. Catcher Elston Howard and pitcher Bill Stafford came to terms with the Yankees, pitcher Billy O'Dell with the Giants and pitcher Lew Burdette with Milwaukee.

Howard, who also plays in the outfield and at first base as needed, reportedly signed for $45,000 and Stafford for an estimated $22,000. No figure was given for O'Dell, but the 36-year-old Burdette, who slumped to a 10-9 mark with the Braves last year, agreed to terms reportedly calling for $40,000.

Duke Beats Maryland, Eyes Perfect Loop Mark

By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Duke Blue Devils, boasting the nation's longest winning string in major college basketball ranks, have a special incentive going for them. They're hoping to emulate the feat of North Carolina's national champions in 1956-57.

Second-ranked Duke turned back Maryland 76-70 at College Park, Md., Tuesday night and kept its streak in tact. The victory was the Blue Devils' 14th straight and gave them a perfect 13-0 Atlantic Coast Conference record with one regular season league game remaining.

The Dixie Dandies, whose overall mark is 20-2, have just one league game left before heading into the sudden-death ACC tournament in Raleigh, starting Feb. 28.

A victory over North Carolina at home Saturday night would leave Duke with a 14-0 league record. In nine previous ACC seasons, only one team has gone through without losing, North Carolina in 1956-57.

No other members of the Top Ten were scheduled Tuesday night but a number of key conference games were played.

Kansas State climbed into a tie for first place with idle Oklahoma State in the Big Eight Conference with 7-2 league records. The Wildcats topped Kansas 67-54 at Lawrence as little Max Moss scored 18 points.

Host Texas boosted its league-leading Southwest Conference record to 10-0 and its over-all mark to 15-5 in knocking Texas A&M out of a share of second place, 83-73. The Aggies dropped to third at 6-4 as Rice moved into the runner-up spot at 7-3 with a 74-70 verdict at home over Baylor.

Georgia Tech whipped Tennessee 72-60 at Knoxville for its 19th victory in 23 starts and kept its Southeastern Conference title hopes alive.

Elsewhere: Southern Methodist outlasted Texas Christian 109-98, Arkansas subdued Texas Tech 83-78, Drake took a 65-65 squeaker over North Texas, William and Mary turned back George Washington 79-75, South Carolina upended Clemson 51-45, DePaul crushed Gannon 83-48, Fordham posted a 78-66 verdict over CCNY, Villanova outclassed Buffalo 69-47, Miami of Ohio vanquished Marshall 66-59, Southern Illinois stunned Western Kentucky 95-73 and St. Mary's, Calif., defeated Santa Clara 81-76.

Winners Announced In 1st Women's Bowling Tourney

Winners in the team events and singles and doubles of the East Liverpool Women's Bowling Association tournament have been announced.

The handicap team event went to the Pinsmashers with 3,037 while Hoge's Drive Inn was second with 3,034 and Head Pin Lanes third, 2,945.

The Head Pin Lanes won the actual division with 2,387 and rolled the high single game actual with 880.

Results of other events follow:

Doubles (with handicap)—Edna Anderson and Phil Stewart, 1,277; Ruth Birkhimer and Helen Morgan, 1,269 and Romona Treadway and Pattie May, 1,220.

Doubles (actual) — Sara Purton and Sara Hague, 988.

Singles (with handicap) — Ruth McCullough, 633; Ruth Vaughn and Helen Morgan tied for second and third with 662.

Singles (actual) — Glenda Simms, 551.

All events (handicap) — Helen Morgan, 1,955.

All events (actual) — Sara Purton, 1,515.

During the tournament five 200 games were bowled with Mary Lou Dickson rolling the high single actual game of 212. The tough 4-7-6-10 split was converted by Ruth Birkhimer.

Trophies and prize money will be awarded the winners at the Association's first annual banquet in March.

Leaders Beaten In Member Loop

Don Hildebrand's handed Roberts its first defeat, 50-45, in the YMCA-Member League Tuesday night, to tighten up the standings.

Ken Lane sparked the winners with 17 points while Jim Eckstein fired in 18 markers for Roberts.

Mathias' five handed Ron Hildebrand's a 60-48 setback with Jerry Murawski's 21 points pacing the winners. Mark Wilson tallied 16 in a losing effort.

McElhaney's turned back George's, 45-38 as Gary Weekley hit the hoops for 22 points. Bill Gabbert topped George's with 13.

8 Indians Unsigned As Spring Drills Near

CLEVELAND (AP) — Eight players on the Cleveland Indians' roster remained unsigned today as the Tribe prepared to open its spring training camp in Tucson, Ariz., Thursday.

They are outfielders Chuck Essegian, Tito Francona and Willie Tasby and pitchers Bob Allen, Gary Bell, Barry Latman, Jim Perry and Sonny Siebert.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Are you out of your mind? I was shocked when I read that you think it's just grand to have a funeral for a cat — "Powder Puff" was her name.

Shortly after that you published a letter in your column praising a crazy mother who had a lovely funeral for their cocker spaniel. The kids stood at the dog's grave and sang, "Oh where or where has my little dog gone?"

All this gets the nod from you but you are against spending money on flowers and a beautiful casket for a loved one.

According to you, it's how we treat people when they are alive that counts. I agree in part, but I also feel it's important to treat them well when life has departed.

You say the dead can't smell the flowers nor can they see the plush lining of a costly casket. Well, they can't hear the sermon either. Maybe there should be no religious services either: Why don't you go back to housework? — FORMER ADMIRER.

Dear Former: Thank you for your point of view. You write well, but you don't read so hot. I'd like to make two points: (1) You are confusing a child's love for his pet with the panoply of an extravagant funeral; (2) I am not opposed to flowers or beautiful caskets. I am opposed to people hocking their eyeballs to put on funerals which are beyond their financial means.

P.S.: I did housework and I like writing a column better.

Collection Taker

Dear Ann: A certain woman who works in our office loves to be in charge of office collections. Whenever she hears of someone who is ill, or a death in the family or an approaching marriage she takes over.

Last week one of the girls resigned to move to another city. I counted the names of 47 people who contributed anywhere from 50 cents to $1 for the farewell gift. When the honored guest opened the package I was shocked to see two small items which could not have cost more than $5 a piece.

And then there was a funeral for another employe several months ago. This same woman collected $1 from everyone. The small basket of cut flowers from 50 people was a pathetic sight.

No one ever knows exactly how much she collects nor does she ever show a receipt. What can be done about this? — HORNSWOGGLED.

Dear Horn: Although your suspicions seem well grounded you can't accuse the woman without solid evidence.

Keep your ear to the ground and when you hear of an approaching event that will trigger an office collection, grab the initiative. Then be sure that you post the list of givers and the receipt on the office bulletin board. The contrast in procedure will speak more eloquently than anything you could say.

Domineering Mate

Dear Ann: I get up at 6 a.m. five days a week to fix my husband a big breakfast.

On Saturdays and Sundays he doesn't go to work but he gets up just the same because he can't sleep. He expects me to get up on those days and get him the same big breakfast.

I do all my own work and don't have the energy some women have. I'd enjoy sleeping a few extra hours but he insists it's my duty to get up and make him breakfast whether he goes to work or not.

He doesn't care for church, sports or visiting friends. He spends most of his weekend in bed reading, watching TV and just sleeping. I can't go back to bed during the day because I have too much work.

Do I have the right to sleep until 8 a.m. on the days my husband doesn't have to go to work? — TRUDY.

Dear Trudy: Your husband's punishing behavior is a symptom of a deeper problem. You two need the help of a marriage counselor or a clergyman. A man who really cares about his wife would not make such unreasonable demands. He'd be delighted to let her sleep a few extra hours.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Farmers In Hancock Warned On Deadline

Hancock County farmers planning to participate in the 1963 feed grain program, providing payments for conserving feed grain crops, are to sign "intention to participate" forms before Friday at the County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation office in New Cumberland.

Mrs. Norma Murray, office manager, reported the ASC committee will prepare figures on a farmer's feed grain base if he is unable to do so himself. Farmers growing corn or barley may apply at the ASC office.

The office will be closed Friday for George Washington's birthday anniversary, but is open other days from 8 a. m. to noon and 12:20 to 4:30 p. m.

Boys' Hearings Reset On Burglary Charges

A hearing for a 16-year-old boy was continued until March 4 and the case of a 17-year-old was reset for Aug. 19.

The two were among four juveniles implicated in an entry at Wright's Cash & Carry Lumber on Dresden Ave. and a burglary at the Iron City Distributing Co. on Market St.

Promptness Pays. One Taxpayer Finds

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — At least one Cabell County taxpayer found out it doesn't pay to put off paying taxes.

The taxpayer owed 10 cents in 1961 real estate taxes for one-fourth acre on Health's Creek.

He dropped in at the sheriff's office to pay and found he still owed the 10 cents — plus a $3.50 delinquent fee.

2 Killed, 2 Injured In 2-Car Collision

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Harley E. Dozer, 72, of Ray (Vinton County) and his wife, Hazel, 56, were killed Tuesday in a two-car collision on U.S. 35 about six miles east of here.

A girl believed to be the couple's daughter, Thelma Dozer, 15, was listed in critical condition in Chillicothe Hospital. Driver of the other car involved in the mishap, Alva Otto Speakman, Rt. 1, Ray was listed in fair condition.

Elisha G. Otis invented the passenger elevator.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: Are you out of your mind? I was shocked when I read that you think it's just grand to have a funeral for a cat — "Powder Puff" was her name.

Shortly after that you published a letter in your column praising a crazy mother who had a lovely funeral for their cocker spaniel. The kids stood at the dog's grave and sang, "Oh where or where has my little dog gone?"

All this gets the nod from you but you are against spending money on flowers and a beautiful casket for a loved one.

According to you, it's how we treat people when they are alive that counts. I agree in part, but I also feel it's important to treat them well when life has departed.

You say the dead can't smell the flowers nor can they see the plush lining of a costly casket. Well, they can't hear the sermon either. Maybe there should be no religious services either: Why don't you go back to housework? — FORMER ADMIRER.

Dear Former: Thank you for your point of view. You write well, but you don't read so hot. I'd like to make two points: (1) You are confusing a child's love for his pet with the panoply of an extravagant funeral; (2) I am not opposed to flowers or beautiful caskets. I am opposed to people hocking their eyeballs to put on funerals which are beyond their financial means.

P.S.: I did housework and I like writing a column better.

Collection Taker

Dear Ann: A certain woman who works in our office loves to be in charge of office collections. Whenever she hears of someone who is ill, or a death in the family or an approaching marriage she takes over.

Last week one of the girls resigned to move to another city. I counted the names of 47 people who contributed anywhere from 50 cents to $1 for the farewell gift. When the honored guest opened the package I was shocked to see two small items which could not have cost more than $5 a piece.

And then there was a funeral for another employe several months ago. This same woman collected $1 from everyone. The small basket of cut flowers from 50 people was a pathetic sight.

No one ever knows exactly how much she collects nor does she ever show a receipt. What can be done about this? — HORNSWOGGLED.

Dear Horn: Although your suspicions seem well grounded you can't accuse the woman without solid evidence.

Keep your ear to the ground and when you hear of an approaching event that will trigger an office collection, grab the initiative. Then be sure that you post the list of givers and the receipt on the office bulletin board. The contrast in procedure will speak more eloquently than anything you could say.

Domineering Mate

Dear Ann: I get up at 6 a.m. five days a week to fix my husband a big breakfast.

On Saturdays and Sundays he doesn't go to work but he gets up just the same because he can't sleep. He expects me to get up on those days and get him the same big breakfast.

I do all my own work and don't have the energy some women have. I'd enjoy sleeping a few extra hours but he insists it's my duty to get up and make him breakfast whether he goes to work or not.

He doesn't care for church, sports or visiting friends. He spends most of his weekend in bed reading, watching TV and just sleeping. I can't go back to bed during the day because I have too much work.

Do I have the right to sleep until 8 a.m. on the days my husband doesn't have to go to work? — TRUDY.

Dear Trudy: Your husband's punishing behavior is a symptom of a deeper problem. You two need the help of a marriage counselor or a clergyman. A man who really cares about his wife would not make such unreasonable demands. He'd be delighted to let her sleep a few extra hours.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Farmers In Hancock Warned On Deadline

Hancock County farmers planning to participate in the 1963 feed grain program, providing payments for conserving feed grain crops, are to sign "intention to participate" forms before Friday at the County Agricultural, Stabilization and Conservation office in New Cumberland.

Mrs. Norma Murray, office manager, reported the ASC committee will prepare figures on a farmer's feed grain base if he is unable to do so himself. Farmers growing corn or barley may apply at the ASC office.

The office will be closed Friday for George Washington's birthday anniversary, but is open other days from 8 a. m. to noon and 12:20 to 4:30 p. m.

Boys' Hearings Reset On Burglary Charges

Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin at Lisbon Monday ordered continuances in the hearings of two East Liverpool boys cited before him in connection with a series of petty burglaries.

A hearing for a 16-year-old boy was continued until March 4 and the case of a 17-year-old was reset for Aug. 19.

The two were among four juveniles implicated in an entry at Wright's Cash & Carry Lumber on Dresden Ave. and a burglary at the Iron City Distributing Co. on Market St.

Promptness Pays. One Taxpayer Finds

HUNTINGTON, W. Va. (AP) — At least one Cabell County taxpayer found out it doesn't pay to put off paying taxes.

The taxpayer owed 10 cents in 1961 real estate taxes for one-fourth acre on Health's Creek.

He dropped in at the sheriff's office to pay and found he still owed the 10 cents — plus a $3.50 delinquent fee.

2 Killed, 2 Injured In 2-Car Collision

CHILLICOTHE, Ohio (AP) — Harley E. Dozer, 72, of Ray (Vinton County) and his wife, Hazel, 56, were killed Tuesday in a two-car collision on U.S. 35 about six miles east of here.

A girl believed to be the couple's daughter, Thelma Dozer, 15, was listed in critical condition in Chillicothe Hospital. Driver of the other car involved in the mishap, Alva Otto Speakman, Rt. 1, Ray was listed in fair condition.

Elisha G. Otis invented the passenger elevator.

One-Legged Canary Has Lovely Voice

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP)—Among gifts received at a Salvation Army rehabilitation center here, is a one-legged canary in a cage.

It sings for about 70 men being rehabilitated here.

"It has a lovely voice," said Maj. Paul Branum, manager of the center.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Great-Souled Women Held In Esteem

Dr. Garry Meyers

Almost gone are the days when an unmarried aunt mothered many young children, sometimes growing dearer to these children than their mother. But there are still a few of these unmarried women past middle age, or widows, who baby - sit occasionally or spend many hours daily over the years in a family. Often they are rare persons with great wisdom and force of character. Too, they may win the strong affection not only of the children but of the entire family. Recently while I was participating in a business meeting another man of the group rose to have us all meet a charming, elderly lady who had entered with his wife.

—.—

BEFORE WE were introduced to this woman, the man greeted her, tenderly hugging her. Both he and his wife treated her as a person of distinction.

For many years, it turned out, this woman had helped the couple bring up their children while both parents worked.

I had often heard these parents and the children express great affection and esteem for this woman and, on several occasions in their home, had seen what the fine mothering she had done.

When this woman, who appeared for a few minutes, was shown such deference and appreciation by the man and his wife, I felt we were all on a lofty plane. Nearly all the wealth this woman had was in her heart.

Then and since, I have mused on the number of great souls like this woman and the father and mother, almost as great, who so honored her.

WHEN SUCH rare persons who have had so large a part in the happy upbringing of other people's children and who have won the strong affection and esteem not only of the children but of the entire family, are properly paid and truly appreciated, even long after their time of service, they gain rich satisfaction themselves.

Let us thank God for such wonderful, warm people. Let us and our children keep alive our memories of them.

My bulletin, "Love and Restraint", may be secured by sending.

$8,800 Goal Set

North County Red Cross Campaign Set March 4-31

LISBON — The 1963 fund drive for the North Columbiana County Red Cross Chapter will be held March 4-31, with a goal of $8,800. According to G. V. Weinstock of Lisbon, campaign manager. He is district manager of the Nationwide Insurance Co. in Columbiana County.

A kickoff for workers is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Feb. 28 in the Democratic Headquarters on N. Market St.

The program will include talks by Miss Doris Harper of Wadsworth, Red Cross field representative for Northeastern Ohio; Mrs. Judy Butcher of Salem, executive secretary of the chapter, and Louis Raymond of Salem. A movie, "Neighbor to Neighbor," will be shown.

Atty. George Bowman of Salem, chapter chairman, will give the welcome. Weinstock will be in charge.

Solicitor kits will be distributed by Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, campaign vice chairman. Lunch will be served.

Weinstock said the following 20 chairmen will head the solicitation:

A. M. Muntean, Lisbon, and Richard Mason, Center Township; Mrs. William Navopolsky, Leetonia, and Frank Painter, Salem Township; Gosney, Columbiana and Fairfield Township; Ronald Mackall, East Palestine and New Waterford, and Harry B. Wilson, Unity Township.

Mrs. Glen C. Rhodes, Rogers, Negley and Middleton Township; Mrs. Edward M. Dickey, Negley; Mrs. George Jones, Elkton and Elkrun Township; George M. Van-Horne, Madison Township; Mrs. Mareta Eskew, Gavers and Wayne Township; Josephine Fury, Hanoverton, Roland Dorr, Kensington; Lee Bowman, Hanover Township; Mrs. Ruth Phillips, Summitville; Mrs. Dorothy M. Finnicum, Franklin Township; Mrs. Don Dusenberry, Winona and Butler Township; Mary Mae Cein, Damascus, and the Rev. Robert Swanson, Homeworth, North Georgetown and Knox Township.

Symbols Of Nation's History

Glenn To Present Space Souvenirs To Institution

WASHINGTON (AP)—One year ago, John H. Glenn Jr. carried the American flag on a triumphant ride through space.

Today the souvenirs of that flight take their place with the other symbols of the nation's history as astronaut Glenn formally presents to the Smithsonian Institution the Friendship 7 spacecraft, his silvered space suit and the little flag.

It will be a day of memories for the Marine lieutenant colonel.

On this first anniversary of the United States' first manned orbital flight, Glenn and his family once again will see the scorched capsule that carried him three times around the earth.

The Friendship 7, which Glenn named in honor of the seven astronauts, has been on display without fanfare for two months, awaiting the formal presentation ceremony.

It has toured the principal cities of the world and has been inspected by millions.

A small ceremony was planned to mark the presentation at the Smithsonian's air museum. Then a motorcade will carry the group to a downtown hotel for a luncheon.

Among those taking part will be Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, chairman of the National Aeronautics and Space Council.

Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., chairman of the Senate Space Committee, members of Congress and officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The 41-year-old astronaut, his wife, Annie, and their children, David, 17, and Lyn, 15, flew here from Houston, Tex., last Friday. They have been staying at a motel, visiting old friends in suburban Arlington, Va., where they lived before the manned space program moved its base to Houston.

Area Concerts Open To City Music Group

The Lucerne Festival of Strings will perform Thursday night at 8:15 at Steubenville High School.

The Cuyahoga Falls Association is presenting Stecher and Horowitz, duo - pianists, in a concert at 8:30 Friday at the high school auditorium.

This program will be also presented Saturday at 8:30 by the Canton Association at Timken High School. Guests at the Canton concert will be admitted after the local membership is seated.

County Unit Growing

Rotary Told Scout Group Faces Expansion Problem

The Columbiana County Boy Scout Council, growing by leaps and bounds, faces a "staggering" job ahead in mapping out a program that will provide for additional members of the youth group, Bennett Taylor of Lisbon told the Rotary Club Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

The council executive said plotting the course for anticipated future growth "scares you when you look at it."

Membership in the 110 various council units in the county reached 3,020 at the close of 1962—representing a gain of 10½ per cent over the previous year—and 1963 is being sized up as an even bigger year for enrollment gains, Taylor told the club.

The enrollment gain last year by the Columbiana Council was the largest of any in Ohio, and was exceeded by only two other in Region 4, Taylor explained in a yearend review. Lexington and Paducah, both in Kentucky, led the regional growth with gains of 17 and 12 percent, he added.

Pointing out the "density" of the scouting program here, Taylor said 27.9 percent of all youths between 8 and 18 are registered in the program.

"The available market is exceeded only by one other area in the entire region, with Toledo showing 28 percent," he said.

"The figures seem to indicate that the boys are getting into scouting, but how much scouting is getting into the boys," Taylor questioned. He related additional statistics concerning the organization's influence in building citizenship in Columbiana County and Grant District in Hancock County.

"Twenty-seven of the 3,020 boys in the Council attained the rank of Eagle Scout last year, and 12 have already applied for the highest rank this year. There may be 35 new Eagle Scouts in 1963," Taylor continued.

"In addition, many God and Country awards were presented—including 10 at one service in Chester which is practically unheard of in the movement," Taylor said.

He added about 80 per cent of council membership attended various churches last week, during the observance of Boy Scout Week, and 10,000 church bulletins carried appropriate messages.

Taylor said assuring that enough scouts will be able to attend summer camp in the next few years is one of the big problems of the council.

"There were 48.5 per cent of our boys who spent seven days and nights in summer camp last year, and another 30 per cent spent five to seven days at camp, almost none missed out," Taylor said.

The length of summer camp has been extended from five weeks to six, and will be seven weeks in 1963 in a bid to accommodate everyone. Although an extra week has been added, there is only space enough left for four more troops, he said.

Concerning the Boy Scout influence on youngsters, the council executive pointed out a New Waterford lad, Herbie Hall, had rescued a woman and three youngsters when their raft overturned in a lake, even though his swimming ability was little. "It took him three weeks to earn his swimming merit badge later on, but he didn't hesitate to go to the rescue in the emergency," Taylor said.

Taylor, a native of Kentucky and graduate of Transylvania College in Lexington, also briefly discussed council finances. Contributions from the Community Fund and special gifts are deposited in a central bank account for efficiency and is allotted for salaries of leaders and other expenses. "The money is watched very closely and is used very efficiently," he added.

Taylor was introduced by John C. Thompson, program chairman, who is vice president of the Columbiana Council.

Sidney C. Porter Jr., president, read an invitation to a meeting of the Columbiana County Forest and Parks Council March 28 at 8 p. m. in the Lisbon VFW Hall.

Ray Clendenning announced the club has been invited to send representatives to the 40th anniversary of the Minerva Rotary Club March 4 at 7 p. m. at Minerva High School.

Ten were nominated as members of the Board of Directors. Seven will be elected at a later meeting.

Woman Hurt On Car Door

A Newell woman injured on a car door was treated early today at City Hospital, where seven district residents were treated Tuesday following separate mishaps.

Mrs. Ann Bradley, 605 Grant St., was treated this morning for a mashed thumb suffered when caught in a car door.

Thomas Linger, 16, of 406 Richardson Ave. was treated yesterday for a possible fracture of the left wrist received while wrestling at school.

In a fall at Laughlin's Corners, Thomas Cooper, 14, son of William Cooper of Hookstown R. D. 1, received an injury to the right arm and a cut of the chin.

Miss Hazel Dickey of the Travelers Hotel was treated for a cut of the hand received on a tin can while washing dishes at a relative's home.

Loretta Adkins, 11, daughter of Hubert Adkins, 1032 Edgewood Ave., suffered an injury to the left elbow in a fall going to school.

William Trowbridge, 26, of 683 Lincoln Ave. was treated for a cut of the left index finger.

Vernon Shafer, 14, son of Vernon Shafer of Williams Ave., was treated for an arm injury received in a fall on ice Sunday.

William McAvoy, 33, of New Cumberland R. D. was treated for injuries to the ribs suffered in an auto accident on Route 2 Sunday.

Rescue Mission Aide Reports To Directors

James Burton, superintendent of the Community Rescue Mission, reported 91 beds were provided and 220 meals served this month, at a meeting of the Board of Directors Tuesday evening at the Broadway center.

William Smith, president, conducted routine business.

Next meeting is March 19.

Bringing Up A Family

By GARRY C. MEYERS

Great-Souled Women Held In Esteem

Dr. Garry Meyers

Almost gone are the days when an unmarried aunt mothered many young children, sometimes growing dearer to these children than their mother. But there are still a few of these unmarried women past middle age, or widows, who baby - sit occasionally or spend many hours daily over the years in a family. Often they are rare persons with great wisdom and force of character. Too, they may win the strong affection not only of the children but of the entire family. Recently while I was participating in a business meeting another man of the group rose to have us all meet a charming, elderly lady who had entered with his wife.

BEFORE WE were introduced to this woman, the man greeted her, tenderly hugging her. Both he and his wife treated her as a person of distinction.

For many years, it turned out, this woman had helped the couple bring up their children while both parents worked.

I had often heard these parents and the children express great affection and esteem for this woman and, on several occasions in their home, had seen what the fine mothering she had done.

When this woman, who appeared for a few minutes, was shown such deference and appreciation by the man and his wife, I felt we were all on a lofty plane. Nearly all the wealth this woman had was in her heart.

Then and since, I have mused on the number of great souls like this woman and the father and mother, almost as great, who so honored her.

WHEN SUCH rare persons who have had so large a part in the happy upbringing of other people's children and who have won the strong affection and esteem not only of the children but of the entire family, are properly paid and truly appreciated, even long after their time of service, they gain rich satisfaction themselves.

Let us thank God for such wonderful, warm people. Let us and our children keep alive our memories of them.

My bulletin, "Love and Restraint", may be secured by sending 20 cents in coin to me in care of this paper.

$8,300 Goal Set

North County Red Cross Campaign Set March 4-31

LISBON — The 1963 fund drive for the North Columbiana County Red Cross Chapter will be held March 4-31, with a goal of $8,800. According to G. V. Weinstock of Lisbon, campaign manager. He is district manager of the Nationwide Insurance Co. in Columbiana County.

A kickoff for workers is scheduled for 7:30 p. m. Feb. 28 in the Democratic Headquarters on N. Market St.

The program will include talks by Miss Doris Harper of Wadsworth, Red Cross field representative for Northeastern Ohio; Mrs. Judy Butcher of Salem, executive secretary of the chapter, and Louis Raymond of Salem. A movie, "Neighbor to Neighbor," will be shown.

Atty. George Bowman of Salem, chapter chairman, will give the welcome. Weinstock will be in charge.

Solicitor kits will be distributed by Don R. Gosney of Columbiana, campaign vice chairman. Lunch will be served.

Weinstock said the following 20 chairmen will head the solicitation:

A. M. Muntean, Lisbon, and Richard Mason, Center Township; Mrs. William Navojosky, Leetonia, and Frank Painter, Salem Township; Gosney, Columbiana and Fairfield Township; Ronald Mackall, East Palestine and New Waterford, and Harry B. Wilson, Unity Township.

Mrs. Glen C. Rhodes, Rogers; Negley and Middleton Township; Mrs. Edward M. Dickey, Negley; Mrs. George Jones, Elkton and Elkrun Township; George M. Van Horne, Madison Township; Mrs. Marcta Eskew, Gavers and Wayne Township; Josephine Fury, Hanoverton; Roland Dorr, Kensington; Lee Bowman, Hanover Township; Mrs. Ruth Phillips, Summitville; Mrs. Dorothy M. Eunicum, Franklin Township; Mrs. Don Dusenberry, Winona and Butler Township; Mary Mae Cein, Damascus, and the Rev. Robert Swanson, Homeworth, North Georgetown and Knox Township.

Symbols Of Nation's History

Glenn To Present Space Souvenirs To Institution

WASHINGTON (AP)—One year ago, John H. Glenn Jr. carried the American flag on a triumphant ride through space.

Today the souvenirs of that flight take their place with the other symbols of the nation's history as astronaut Glenn formally presents to the Smithsonian Institution the Friendship 7 spacecraft, his silvered space suit and the little flag.

It will be a day of memories for the Marine lieutenant colonel.

On this first anniversary of the United States' first manned orbital flight, Glenn and his family once again will see the scorched capsule that carried him three times around the earth.

The Friendship 7, which Glenn named in honor of the seven astronauts, has been on display without fanfare for two months, awaiting the formal presentation ceremony.

It has toured the principal cities of the world and has been inspected by millions.

A small ceremony was planned to mark the presentation at the Smithsonian's air museum. Then a motorcade will carry the group to a downtown hotel for a luncheon.

Among those taking part will be Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson, chairman of the National Aeronautics and Space Council; Sen. Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., chairman of the Senate Space Committee, members of Congress and officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

The 41-year-old astronaut, his wife, Annie, and their children, David, 17, and Lyn, 15, flew here from Houston, Tex., last Friday. They have been staying at a motel, visiting old friends in suburban Arlington, Va., where they lived before the manned space program moved its base to Houston.

Area Concerts Open To City Music Group

Members of the Tri-State Civic Music Association were reminded by Ernest Lowe, president, that a reciprocity agreement entitles attendance at several area concerts this week.

The Laccrne Festival of Strings will perform Thursday night at 8:15 at Steubenville High School.

The Cuyahoga Falls Association is presenting Stecher and Horowitz, duo - pianists, in a concert at 8:30 Friday at the high school auditorium.

This program will be also presented Saturday at 8:30 by the Canton Association at Timken High School. Guests at the Canton concert will be admitted after the local membership is seated.

County Unit Growing

Rotary Told Scout Group Faces Expansion Problem

The Columbiana County Boy Scout Council, growing by leaps and bounds, faces a "staggering" job ahead in mapping out a program that will provide for additional members of the youth group, Bennett Taylor of Lisbon told the Rotary Club Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

The council executive said plotting the course for anticipated future growth "scares you when you look at it."

Appeal To State Dropped By Post

American Legion Post 4 will not appeal the State Liquor Board's decision denying it a club permit, it was indicated at the post's meeting Monday night in the Siff Building.

G. William Brokaw, past commander and county prosecuting attorney, reported on a conference he held last week in Columbus with board officials.

East Liverpool now has one more license than it is authorized under the law, Brokaw said he was informed. There is no chance of the board reconsidering its decision and it would be useless to appeal, Brokaw told the post.

Dan McKeever, commander, presided. About 20 attended.

An oyster dinner was served by Ike Jones, third vice commander, and Robert Osborn, past commander, following the meeting.

Marietta College Picks Dr. Buddy As 13th President

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP) — Marietta College, founded in 1835, will have its 13th president Aug. 1 when Dr. Frank E. Duddy Jr., 45, assumes that post upon retirement of President W. Bay Irvine.

Dr. Duddy, now president of Westminster College, Salt Lake City, Utah, was selected for the post Tuesday by the college's board of trustees.

The new president is a graduate of DePauw and Harvard universities. He became Westminster president in 1956 following a 10-year tenure on the faculty of the United States Naval Academy. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., he attended secondary schools in Cambridge, Mass., and was graduated cum laude from DePauw in 1939. He earned his master's and Ph.D degrees at Harvard in 1940 and 1942 respectively.

Ohio U. Student Has Busy Day In Nation's Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tuesday was a busy day in the life of a 21-year - old college junior from Ohio State University.

But it was an interesting one for Timothy Frost of Columbus, who spent most of the day in the White House press office.

Frost, as an observer, sat in on Press Secretary Pierre Salinger's conferences and telephone calls. Among other things, he attended two briefings Salinger held, got into the press section welcoming ceremonies for President Romulo Betancourt of Venezuela and went to a luncheon at Blair House the government's guest home for distinguished visitors.

Frost's visit to the White House was set up by the Ohio Valley Regional Association of International Relations Clubs.

Frost said his impressions were a little difficult to put into words because he doubted if it was an average day for Salinger, what with all the confences and calls.

He said the names he heard mentioned in Salinger's office didn't mean too much to him, and he was sure that if anything really important had come up he would have been asked to leave.

Trial Of 2 On Dope Charge To Continue

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Trial of two men charged with conspiring to import heroin from Korea through the mails continued today in federal court.

Two gamblers, Joseph A. Gargano, 39, of Mack, Ohio, and William J. VanDetti, 35, of Southgate, Ky., face maximum sentences of from 5-20 years and - or $20,000 fines, if convicted.

Two others, John P. Radican, 23, of Elyria, a former University of Dayton student, and Arlie C. Bush, 53, of Newport, Ky., also a gambler, pleaded guilty to the charge last December. They have not been sentenced.

They appeared in court Tuesday as government witnesses.

Striking Printers Due Special Assessment

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — The International Typographical Union says its members have approved by nearly a 3-to-1 margin a special assessment to aid striking newspaper printers in New York and Cleveland.

The 3 per cent a month assessment, designed to bolster the union's treasury, will last one year.

Transfer Permitted

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—In the latest step in a U.S. government anti-trust suit against six firms charged with monopolizing the color-comic supplement industry, a federal judge has agreed to let one—Greater Buffalo Press Inc. —transfer printing operations but not equipment from a subsidiary in Pennsylvania to Alabama.

Out Of The Air

The Man In Second Place

America's next - to - favorite show, according to the ratings these days, is "Candid Camera." But do you think America's not-necessarily - next - to - favorite performer, Allen Funt, is resting on his decimal points? Not on your life!

Alan Gill

"It's got to stay a one-man show — That's me—with my particular stamp," he was saying a few days ago. "But there are many vast departures we can make. We must have 50 developments in the making, and we'll turn 'em loose gradually.

-:-

"WE'VE GOT an idea for a feature-length movie. You snatch a guy—a postman, say—away from a small Midwestern town and then you keep your cameras turned on his fellow townsmen—how they respond to his disappearance.

"Here's another idea: you set up the cameras in two places at the same time: in the football dressing rooms of the two opposing teams. What are they saying?

"Or you catch the moment a sentence is pronounced in the courtroom. You're with the jury, with the defendant, and maybe with the defendant's wife 100 miles away.

"We've got a show in mind called 'Camera Kids,' which is staffed by children who catch their grownups at things. (Kids are great in our spots, like the one we had of the kids selling lemonade last summer; only it was pure lemon juice.)

"Of course we'd have sweet kids, and we'd rotate them. We wouldn't want them to get smart-alecky."

-:-

MANY OF the "Candid Camera" sports originate in Funt's little fun-and-games shop. But some are sent in by viewers.

"The suggestions," Funt says, "used to be rough because the show was a little rough.

" 'Stick a gun in a guy's ribs and see what he does'; that was No. 1. The second most popular idea was: "Pretend you're gonna jump off the Empire State Building.'

"Now we've got two suggestions that come in by the droves. 'Put a gyroscope in a valise and then watch a guy try to turn a corner with it.' Well, we've experimented with that one 20,000 times and still can't get it to work.

-:-

"THE OTHER is: 'Get a self-serve laundry to overflow.'

"I suspect there's a little larceny behind some of the mail because—and I hate to tell you this—bundles of letters come in suggesting we do something we just did. I suppose some of them think they can sue us for stealing an idea. Or maybe it's an unconscious thing.

"One of the stunts we've been working on for ages is a break-apart car. We have Dorothy Collins, say, in the front seat acting a bit nervous as a new driver. Somehow, we have this guy in the back. She starts the car, shifts into first and drives off, leaving the guy and the rear section of the car standing there.

-:-

"WE'VE GOT the car. Some kids in an auto club outside Miami made it for us with a $400 advance. But they've done the stunt so often around Miami, everybody knows it down there. We'll have to move it to another state when we shoot it."

Among the subjects Funt does his darndest to avoid on his show are (a) the bigot and (b) the apparent thief.

"I've run into plenty of bigots, though. They don't mind being on. They want you to know how they feel.

"And any suggestion of dishonesty we can't use. Once we put dollar bills in a bunch of plastic pocketbooks that were selling for 85 cents on a department store counter. One lady bought six bags, but she was charming; she justified what she did with an elegance that was funny and we left it in."

-:-

WHO, FUNT was asked, is the most effective kind of celebrity-guest for the show?

"Marlon Brando," Funt said, "would be marvelous. So would Jackie Gleason or Art Carney. I mean people who aren't performing but being themselves. Milton Berle or Mickey Rooney? Terrible. There'd be no contact with reality.

"We had trouble with Jayne Mansfield for awhile. She couldn't stand not being recognized, the 'I'm so famous you can't hide me' attitude. I almost had to beat her to death, hollering, 'No more method acting, you hear?'

"And suddenly, the next time we shot this thing, she lost herself in it. She was great."

The Miss Mansfield incident happened in New Orleans. Would Funt try the same sort of thing in Croton-on-Hudson, N.Y.?

"Look," said Funt, "I have to live here!"

Police Probe Drinking Party Fatal To Youth

CINCINNATI (AP) — Juvenile authorities are investigating a weekend drinking party that resulted in the death of Robert Sims, 16.

Sims was found Monday in a wooded area, and the Hamilton County coroner's office said he died of exposure and acute alcoholism. Police said three younger boys admitted abandoning Sims when he passed out.

Appeal To State Dropped By Post

American Legion Post 4 will not appeal the State Liquor Board's decision denying it a club permit, it was indicated at the post's meeting Monday night in the Siff Building.

G. William Brokaw, past commander and county prosecuting attorney, reported on a conference he held last week in Columbus with board officials.

East Liverpool now has one more license than it is authorized under the law, Brokaw said he was informed. There is no chance of the board reconsidering its decision and it would be useless to appeal, Brokaw told the post.

Dan McKeever, commander, presided. About 20 attended.

An oyster dinner was served by Ike Jones, third vice commander, and Robert Osborn, past commander, following the meeting.

Marietta College Picks Dr. Buddy As 13th President

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP) — Marietta College, founded in 1835, will have its 13th president Aug. 1 when Dr. Frank E. Duddy Jr., 45, assumes that post upon retirement of President W. Bay Irvine.

Dr. Duddy, now president of Westminster College, Salt Lake City, Utah, was selected for the post Tuesday by the college's board of trustees.

The new president is a graduate of DePauw and Harvard universities. He became Westminster president in 1956 following a 10-year tenure on the faculty of the United States Naval Academy. Born in Poughkeepsie, N. Y., he attended secondary schools in Cambridge, Mass., and was graduated cum laude from DePauw in 1939. He earned his master's and Ph.D degrees at Harvard in 1940 and 1942 respectively.

Ohio U. Student Has Busy Day In Nation's Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tuesday was a busy day in the life of a 21-year - old college junior from Ohio State University.

But it was an interesting one for Timothy Frost of Columbus, who spent most of the day in the White House press office.

Frost, as an observer, sat in on Press Secretary Pierre Salinger's conferences and telephone calls. Among other things, he attended two briefings Salinger held, got into the press section welcoming ceremonies for President Romulo Betancourt of Venezuela and went to a luncheon at Blair House the government's guest home for distinguished visitors.

Frost's visit to the White House was set up by the Ohio Valley Regional Association of International Relations Clubs.

Frost said his impressions were a little difficult to put into words because he doubted if it was an average day for Salinger, what with all the confences and calls.

He said the names he heard mentioned in Salinger's office didn't mean too much to him, and he was sure that if anything really important had come up he would have been asked to leave.

Trial Of 2 On Dope Charge To Continue

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Trial of two men charged with conspiring to import heroin from Korea through the mails continued today in federal court.

Two gamblers, Joseph A. Gargano, 39, of Mack, Ohio, and William J. VanDetti, 35, of Southgate, Ky., face maximum sentences of from 5-20 years and - or $20,000 fines, if convicted.

Two others, John P. Radican, 23, of Elyria, a former University of Dayton student, and Arlie C. Bush, 53, of Newport, Ky., also a gambler, pleaded guilty to the charge last December. They have not been sentenced.

They appeared in court Tuesday as government witnesses.

Striking Printers Due Special Assessment

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP) — The International Typographical Union says its members have approved by nearly a 3-to-1 margin a special assessment to aid striking newspaper printers in New York and Cleveland.

The 3 per cent a month assessment, designed to bolster the union's treasury, will last one year.

Transfer Permitted

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—In the latest step in a U.S. government anti-trust suit against six firms charged with monopolizing the color-comic supplement industry, a federal judge has agreed to let one—Greater Buffalo Press Inc. —transfer printing operations but not equipment from a subsidiary in Pennsylvania to Alabama.

Out Of The Air

The Man In Second Place

America's next - to - favorite show, according to the ratings these days, is "Candid Camera." But do you think America's not-necessarily - next - to - favorite performer, Allen Funt, is resting on his decimal points? Not on your life!

Alan Gill

"It's got to stay a one-man show — That's me—with my particular stamp," he was saying a few days ago. "But there are many vast departures we can make. We must have 50 developments in the making, and we'll turn 'em loose gradually.

-:-

"WE'VE GOT an idea for a feature-length movie. You snatch a guy—a postman, say—away from a small Midwestern town and then you keep your cameras turned on his fellow townsmen—how they respond to his disappearance.

"Here's another idea: you set up the cameras in two places at the same time: in the football dressing rooms of the two opposing teams. What are they saying?

"Or you catch the moment a sentence is pronounced in the courtroom. You're with the jury, with the defendant, and maybe with the defendant's wife 100 miles away.

"We've got a show in mind called 'Camera Kids,' which is staffed by children who catch their grownups at things. (Kids are great in our spots, like the one we had of the kids selling lemonade last summer; only it was pure lemon juice.)

"Of course we'd have sweet kids, and we'd rotate them. We wouldn't want them to get smart-alecky."

-:-

MANY OF the "Candid Camera" sports originate in Funt's little fun-and-games shop. But some are sent in by viewers.

"The suggestions," Funt says, "used to be rough because the show was a little rough.

" 'Stick a gun in a guy's ribs and see what he does'; that was No. 1. The second most popular idea was: "Pretend you're gonna jump off the Empire State Building.'

"Now we've got two suggestions that come in by the droves. 'Put a gyroscope in a valise and then watch a guy try to turn a corner with it.' Well, we've experimented with that one 20,000 times and still can't get it to work.

-:-

"THE OTHER is: 'Get a self-serve laundry to overflow.'

"I suspect there's a little larceny behind some of the mail because—and I hate to tell you this—bundles of letters come in suggesting we do something we just did. I suppose some of them think they can sue us for stealing an idea. Or maybe it's an unconscious thing.

"One of the stunts we've been working on for ages is a break-apart car. We have Dorothy Collins, say, in the front seat acting a bit nervous as a new driver. Somehow, we have this guy in the back. She starts the car, shifts into first and drives off, leaving the guy and the rear section of the car standing there.

-:-

"WE'VE GOT the car. Some kids in an auto club outside Miami made it for us with a $400 advance. But they've done the stunt so often around Miami, everybody knows it down there. We'll have to move it to another state when we shoot it."

Among the subjects Funt does his darndest to avoid on his show are (a) the bigot and (b) the apparent thief.

"I've run into plenty of bigots, though. They don't mind being on. They want you to know how they feel.

"And any suggestion of dishonesty we can't use. Once we put dollar bills in a bunch of plastic pocketbooks that were selling for 85 cents on a department store counter. One lady bought six bags, but she was charming; she justified what she did with an elegance that was funny and we left it in."

-:-

WHO, FUNT was asked, is the most effective kind of celebrity-guest for the show?

"Marlon Brando," Funt said, "would be marvelous. So would Jackie Gleason or Art Carney. I mean people who aren't performing but being themselves. Milton Berle or Mickey Rooney? Terrible. There'd be no contact with reality.

"We had trouble with Jayne Mansfield for awhile. She couldn't stand not being recognized, the 'I'm so famous you can't hide me' attitude. I almost had to beat her to death, hollering, 'No more method acting, you hear?'

"And suddenly, the next time we shot this thing, she lost herself in it. She was great."

The Miss Mansfield incident happened in New Orleans. Would Funt try the same sort of thing in Croton-on-Hudson, N.Y.?

"Look," said Funt, "I have to live here!"

Police Probe Drinking Party Fatal To Youth

CINCINNATI (AP) — Juvenile authorities are investigating a weekend drinking party that resulted in the death of Robert Sims, 16.

Sims was found Monday in a wooded area, and the Hamilton County coroner's office said he died of exposure and acute alcoholism. Police said three younger boys admitted abandoning Sims when he passed out.

Junior Editors Quiz on MONEY

QUESTION: What does the phrase "not worth a Continental" mean?

ANSWER: The American Revolution presented a difficult financial problem to our founding fathers. War costs money, yet there was very little coin to be had. So, paper money such as we show in the illustration, was issued by the Continental Congress. It served the purpose for awhile. But there was hardly any reserve of gold or silver to back it up and as more paper money was printed, people like the shopkeeper we show became suspicious of it. The printed currency dropped so low in value that the saying arose "it's not worth a Continental," meaning a piece of printed Continental money. In 1912, the first stable money system was adopted. Called "blimetalism," it was based on both gold and silver dollars. Printed paper money was not issued again by the government until the time of the Civil War.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Now that we're thinking about the history of our currency, find out how the word "greenback" came to be used. (A hint: it followed closely after the end of the story we have told.)

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, Feb. 20, the 51st day of 1963. There are 314 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this day in 1839, Congress passed a law to outlaw the duel. After the Revolutionary War, when such outstanding men as Hamilton and Decatur died in duels, there was public indignation at the practice. But the plantation civilization of the South, with its Spanish and French influences, brought its revival. It was not until the period between the Civil War and 1900 that the practice of dueling vanished from the American scene.

On this day:

In 1809, the Supreme Court handed down its first decision ruling the power of the United States was greater than that of any individual state.

In 1815, the U.S. frigate "Constitution" was captured by the British.

In 1895, the Cuban Revolution began.

In 1900, the Panama-Pacific International Exposition opened in San Francisco.

In 1938, Anthony Eden resigned from the cabinet of British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain.

Dear Heloise: Almost everything we have comes in plastic bags. I save them!

When I have enough bags I crochet a rug. I cut the strips about one inch to one-half inch and then I start making my rugs. They are wonderful to put outside the front door to wipe your feet on and catch the soil. Just wash them with the garden hose and you are in business again.

MRS. O. C. BROWN.

DEAR HELOISE: I was most delighted to read in your column how to get odd nylon stocking all one color. Here is the method I use:

I used an enamel kettle, and started with cold water and one heaping tablespoon of salt. I boiled all of my odd nylon stockings for three minutes after the water came to a full rolling boil.

Then . . . I set the pan off of the heat and allowed the water to get completely cold while the hose were still in it. Next, I rinsed the hose in clear water. Each time I wear these hose I wash them in mild suds. They are still all the same color.

This is a very satisfactory method. I have passed it on to several friends and have never had a complaint.

SANDRA LAND.

DEAR HELOISE: One of your readers wrote to you about adding syrup to peanut butter. I add a little vanilla to mine! It makes a delicious spread.

MARGUERITTE SMITH.

Double Duty Nylon

DEAR HELOISE: The idea of using nylon net for dish clothes when washing dishes was great. However, the nylon will not wipe off counter and table tops, because it cannot be wrung dry.

I licked that problem by cutting a piece of nylon net the same size as my dish cloth . . . and sewing the net to the back of the dish cloth. Now this serves a double purpose. The net side can be used for washing, and the cloth side for wiping up!

ROSE AMOLSCH.

DEAR HELOISE: Would you please help me with my problem?

Many of my windows steam up and I have to keep wiping them. Yet they are always wet. Is there something I can do to help prevent them from steaming up?

MRS. RALPH WHITE.

DEAR FOLKS: Has anybody got the answer to this problem? We would appreciate it if you would drop us a line. Send your answers to Heloise.

Letters do not have to be signed to appear in the column. And . . . while you are writing if you have a common household problem that has bugged you, why not let us try to help you?

HELOISE.

SUMMITVILLE — Twenty attended a meeting of the Franklin Parent - Teacher Organization Monday night at which the purchase of two pillows and two blankets for the school first aid cot was authorized.

Mrs. Dorothy Carlariello of Salem, Red Cross aide, spoke on the Red Cross services. Mrs. Carole Stein of Salem, also a Red Cross representative, accompanied her.

Mrs. George McPherson, vice president, was in charge. It was announced the George Washington Day dance slated Thursday night at the St. John's Catholic Church Hall will be held unless illness in the community worsens.

John Gruszecki, principal, said the school spelling bee will be conducted before March 8 in preparation for the county bee later in the month.

Next meeting is March 18.

Lions To Hear Talk On Nuclear Test Blast

"A-Blast at Yucca Flats" will be the topic of S. K. Coburn of Pittsburgh when he addresses the Lions Club Friday noon at the Travelers Hotel.

Coburn, who is employed in the applied research laboratory of the U. S. Steel Corp., participated in "Operation Cue" nuclear project at the Nevada test site in 1955.

He will discuss the background and aims of the project, describe what happens when an atomic bomb is detonated and the strange effects the blast had on some objects within the blast zone.

Dr. J. Fraser Jackson will be program chairman.

Have income taxes and license fees been "moving in" on your food budget? That's not unusual this season . . . but it's something you certainly can't ignore!
Let us help you stretch your food budget with these farm-fresh, tender frying chickens — high in protein — low in calories. Use them for company menus, school lunches, cook-in barbecues. Of course, your buyers know that it takes a little more than a stretch of the imagination to make savings on food. So here's a special low price. Don't miss it!

GOVERNMENT GRADE "A" FARM-FRESH FRYING CHICKENS
29¢ lb. WHOLE
Isn't it great that chicken—your best meat value—is also one of the best-liked! Enjoyable so many ways. And more edible yield per pound at lower cost than any other meat! Plan meals this week-end around nutritious, thrifty chicken!
